Catholic Home Missions Appeal, June 5/6. Right now, over 40% of dioceses of the United States and its territories are considered mission territory, because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Stop Taxpayer Funded Abortion: A nationwide effort led by USCCB is set for the first week of June. The Hyde Amendment has protected Americans from funding abortion for 45 years. It is credited with saving the lives of over 2.4 million children, so far. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away this law that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century. Without it, billions of taxpayer dollars could go to abortion. It is critically important for Catholics to send a strong message before Congress moves forward to impose taxpayer-funded abortion. Catholics are urged to sign a petition at www.notaxpayerabortion.com.

Body and Blood of Christ, June 6, 2021 Real Presence, Real Future reflections: “It Is Really Jesus” presented by Deacon Tim Birie, Knox County Consortium of Catholic Churches.

“While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, ‘Take it; this is my body.’” At that meal with his disciples, Jesus gave us the source and summit of our faith, the Eucharist. He is truly present in the Eucharist, as He promised. This Real Presence of Jesus brings us as close to Him as we can be while on this earth. We must explain and share this gift of our faith in order to have a Real Future and so that everyone can share in this joy every time we receive the Eucharist. For more about how we are growing together in the life and faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit www.RealPresenceRealFuture.org.

The Corpus Christi Procession for the Feast of Corpus Christi Sunday will begin at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church in Mt. Vernon today, Sunday, June 6 at 1pm, immediately following the noon Mass. All are welcome to come show their belief in the real presence by joining the procession through Mount Vernon.

The 2021 Bishop’s Annual Appeal gives us the opportunity to support the good works and ministries in the 23 counties of our Diocese. If you have not made a pledge, please prayerfully consider a gift. Please make checks payable to St. Luke Church – BAA. (We deposit them and write one check to the diocese for the total.) We have surpassed our parish goal of $28,646 and the amount collected over that will be returned to our parish for our use. St. Luke’s has received 108 pledges for a total of $38,104. Thank you!

Prayer to Jesus in the tabernacle will be Tuesdays 6:30-8:30pm and Wednesdays 8:30-10:30am. Please arrive on the half hour to minimize noise and interruption of prayer. You may leave quietly at any time; you need not stay an hour. If you have questions, please call Barb McComb at 740-668-2550. Tuesday night we will be praying the Rosary together at 6:45pm. Wednesday morning, we will be praying the Rosary the second half of our prayer time.

Reconciliation Saturdays, 3:30-4:00pm: Please schedule an appointment by 4:30pm on Friday by calling or texting Sandy Mickley at 740-507-9569. Confessions are in the Community Center. Come, confess your sins, receive penance and absolution. You can do your penance at home.

Invacare Electric Wheelchair with joystick control, 3-speed/tilt available for someone in need. It will need 2 new batteries. Call Francis Durbin at 740-397-2811 for more details.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 1339, 1384: Jesus chose the time of Passover to fulfill what he had announced at Capernaum: giving his disciples his Body and his Blood: Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. So Jesus sent Peter and John saying, “Go and prepare the passover meal for us, that we may eat it . . .” They went . . .and prepared the passover. And when the hour came, he sat at table, and the apostles with him. And he said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; for I tell you I shall not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” . . . And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them saying, “This is my body which is given up for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” And likewise the cup after supper, saying, “This cup which is poured out for you is the New Covenant in my blood.” The Lord addresses an invitation to us, urging us to receive him in the sacrament of the Eucharist: “Truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.”

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) – June 6, 2021

Opening Hymn: “Where Charity and Love Prevail”

Where charity and love prevail, There God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ’s love, by love are we thus bound.

With grateful joy and holy fear God’s charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul Now love God in return.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

Responsorial: Psalm 33:4-5, 6, 9, 18-19, 20, 22

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

How shall I make a return to the LORD for all the good he has done for me?

The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. R.

Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds. R.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people. R.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Gospel Acclamation: John 6:51

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit He was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Hymn: "Holy, Holy, Holy"

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee:
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty, God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
