16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 18, 2021, Real Presence, Real Future reflections: “The Word of God” presented by Alfred Akainyah, from St. Anthony Parish & RPRF Commission Member.

In today’s Gospel, the 12 go out in pairs to spread the Good News. When they return, Jesus gathers them to a place of rest to lift their Spirits, but the people of the area arrive, hungry for the Good News, believing, that a word from God exceeds every need and raises anyone willing to believe above their circumstances! We too, with Real Presence, Real Future, are called and entreated to bring the Good News to others in our words and deeds. We should have time for others and be open to unexpected demands, for this is the true meaning of discipleship. To read more about how we are growing together in the life of faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit www.RealPresenceRealFuture.org.

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time, July 18: “He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Mark 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some “alone” time with God. How will you answer God’s call? One way is to support your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 857: The Church is apostolic because she is founded on the apostles, in three ways: - she was and remains built on “the foundation of the Apostles, “ the witnesses chosen and sent on mission by Christ himself, - with the help of the Spirit dwelling in her, the Church keeps and hands on the teaching, the “good deposit,” the salutary words she has heard from the apostles, - she continues to be taught, sanctified, and guided by the apostles until Christ’s return, through their successors in pastoral office: the college of bishops,” assisted by priests, in union with the successor of Peter, the Church’s supreme pastor”. You are the eternal Shepherd who never leaves his flock untended. Through the apostles you watch over us and protect us always. You made them shepherds of the flock to share in the work of your Son. . . .
