

Picture and Video Release Guidelines:

It has come to my attention pictures and video are being posted on sites other than the St. Paul's School Internet web page (by volunteers and parents). Please know a few of our students have not signed a video and picture release form. Therefore, please be sure that any picture or video posted is approved and posted by our web administrators on our website only.