

As we continue to celebrate the anniversary of our school,
this month we celebrate the 80s.

The 80s was the beginning of MTV & music videos,
wild hair, bombastic fashion & neon everything.

While several artists like Michael Jackson
(no longer in the Jackson 5 of the 70s)
Madonna, Bruce Springsteen, & Cyndi Lauper
had great careers with several hits,
a lot of the songs were “one hit wonders.”

As it turns out,
much of the music from this decade is loaded with messages
for what we’re going through right now.
So have Alexa or Google Home play a few of these or better yet,
pull up the videos for an 80s Family Karaoke.

And yes, kids, your parents probably know most of these.
