

Appalachian Christmas Shoebox Mission

With the help of people from our Archdiocese, the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women has held a Christmas Mission Project for over 30 years. This year, we are once again asking you to participate by bringing shoeboxes and other items to Archdiocesan Youth Day 2018 to send to the young people of Appalachia.

Items to donate include:

- Toiletries: Chapstick, washcloths, toothbrush, brush, hair ties, deodorant, bar soap, colorful bandages, mirror, nail file
- School Supplies: Pocket folders, binders, notebooks, pens, pencils, crayons, notebook paper, flashcards, glue sticks
- Small Toys: stuffed animals, cars, games, stencils, jump ropes, dolls, beads, blocks, yo-yo's, Slinkies, small baby toys/teethers, coloring books, puzzles, Legos
- Clothes and Accessories: jewelry, scarves, belts, hats, fun socks, sunglasses, hair bows, tote or purse, friendship bracelets
- Other: hard candy or gum, decks of cards, fishing lures, small flashlights, little notebooks, & Catholic books/Bibles/Rosaries/ prayer cards, playdough, stickers, small wall decorations
- Please DO NOT bring:
 - Anything liquid
 - Anything that melts
 - Anything perishable
- Please ALSO bring:
 - Empty shoeboxes
