Maintenance Fund Report:

July 1, 2014 – April 30, 2015

Total Income	$ 6,500
Expenses
Church	$ 4,800
Parish Hall	$ 5,800
Office	$ 1,000
Rectory Basement	$ 6,900
Total Expenses	$ 18,600
Difference	- $ 12,100

Maintenance Fund: This year we had some extraordinary expenses of painting the parish hall, having the parish hall and church floors stripped and waxed, and fixing up the rectory basement for our youth and other functions.

Please remember St. Joseph Catholic Church in your will.

Church Contribution Envelopes: All parishioners are asked to use the contribution envelopes the parish provides. The envelope is a weekly reminder to return to God a portion of the financial gifts God has blessed us with. Your regular giving is an act of faith.

Your offering does more than support the parish. Giving to the Sunday collection is one important way that we thank God of all of our "countless" blessings. Giving a sacrificial gift is a way of putting our trust in God that he will provide for all of our needs. If you need envelopes please let us know.

Diocesan Collections: The diocese requires all parishes to take up 17 extra collections a year to support the poor and various ministries of the diocesan, national and universal Church. To eliminate so many second collections most parishes have special collections envelopes inserted in the packets of the parish regular Sunday collections envelopes. This is another reason to use the contribution envelopes the parish provides.
