This Week at St. John

Tue 5:00 pm NO Mass

What is the Consecration at Mass? The priest gives praise and thanks and calls upon the Holy Spirit to change our gifts of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. The priest recalls the events of the Last Supper – the institution of the Eucharist.

At this important moment, we proclaim the mystery of faith. Several texts are possible, for example: “We proclaim your Death, O Lord and profess your Resurrection until you come again.” The priest recalls the wonderful deeds of salvation: the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ.

St. John Prayer List: Audrey Burke, Jack Coop, Annie Durbin, Catherine Duvall, Dorothy Fredrick, Vickie Ranburger, Linda Simon

Dear Parishioners of St. John's,

As such, Advent and Christmas seasons are steadily approaching, and it is time to prepare the way of the Lord.

It is my pleasure to invite parishioners to help in this joyous preparation. At Christmas each year, the cantors spend the 30 minutes before mass singing Christmas carols.

How, then, can you, my fellow followers in Christ's footsteps, help in this preparation? It has been three years since we lost Paul Bush, and it would be a tremendous help if you added your voice to the hymns. We invite you to come and practice with us. Help us worship and give thanks to the Lord through song.

We begin the preparation for Christmas and Advent every Sunday from October 2nd to Christmas, a half-hour before mass every Sunday (at 8:30 AM).

Additionally, for those who wish to join the choir practice on a regular basis, practice begins every Sunday at 8 AM if you wish to raise your voices and lift your hearts with song during the mass every Sunday. All are welcome.

Sincerely, Jeremiah Bush, organist

In This Year of Mercy Give Generously to the Disciples Response Fund. As you know, we are implementing a new way to increase support of the Disciples Response Fund and to assist our parish by returning to us 50% of all funds raised over our target. Support of the work of our Diocese is important. There are many things that even the largest parishes cannot do on their own. For example, the Disciples Response Fund puts money into an endowment for the care of retired priests. Also, the fund assists with the expenses for the education of our seminarians. Pope Francis has designated 2016 as a “Year of Mercy”. He instructs us to open our hearts. The Diocese helps to make God’s mercy present throughout Western Kentucky. If you received a letter from Bishop Medley asking for your support of the DRF, please make a generous gift today.

The Bishop’s Appeal: During the past week, all of the registered members of our parish received a letter from Bishop Medley asking for financial support of the Disciples Response Fund. There are two primary ways that most parishes in the United States assist in the work of their dioceses. First, the parishes participate in an Annual Appeal such as the Disciples Response Fund. Then, the parishes pay an assessment based upon their income relative to all other parishes in their dioceses. St. Joseph has been given a goal of raising $5,000 and St. John has been given a goal of $700. Anything raised over this amount will be split 50/50 with the parish.

The good works that are funded by the Disciples Response Fund deserve our support. These are things that cannot be done by a parish on its own. For example, the formation of seminarians and the funding of a charitable trust the earnings of which supports health benefits for retired priests. In addition, a percentage of the funds is set aside to fund an endowment that already reduces parish assessments by about 5%.

As you read Bishop Medley’s letter and the enclosed materials, please reflect upon the theme of the campaign. This theme is taken from one of Pope Francis’ statements about this Year of Mercy. “Open your hearts....”. Please help to extend God’s mercy throughout our Diocese by giving generously to the Disciple’s Response Fund. Please read the bulletin insert about this in today’s bulletin. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of making a generous gift to the Disciples Response Fund.
