The Kentucky Parents Network will be visiting Frankfort on February 25th to tell our elected officials how important educational options are, and you're invited to join us! Now is the time to make sure Kentucky moves forward to ensure educational opportunities for ALL children.

When: February 25, 9:30am

Where: Kentucky State Capitol, 700 Capital Ave, Frankfort, KY 40601

Why: To make sure Kentucky legislators know that we want educational options!

Who: Anyone who cares about increasing educational opportunity in Kentucky! Transportation provided if necessary.

What's Next: Please email Rebekah at KentuckyParentsNetwork@Gmail.com with your availability to attend.

The Senate and House are considering bills that would provide need-based scholarships for students across the commonwealth, but they have to hear from parents and constituents who care about opportunity. Your support could make all the difference – please plan to join us!
