SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD

Star dust. It turns out we are all made of it. Almost every element on Earth was formed at the heart of a star. How? When a massive star explodes, carbon, oxygen and nitrogen are released into the universe, providing the building blocks for planets, and plants, and human life. Everything in us is formed from residual stardust, and here's the best part: you have stuff in you as old as the universe.

So consider this: when those passionate astrologers saw that Star, might it have been the stardust in them, routed into them through eons, from the day God spoke the world into being, that shouted out, "We recognize You! We are made from You! We have literally longed for You, in every cell of our being, from the beginning of time!"

Each of us carries those Wise Men in our own DNA. We too are made of the stuff that sees the Star and says, "Yes, I was made to seek You and find You. Nothing in my life will ever satisfy me until I do."

And so I ask you, Star gazers: where do you feel the most completely yourself, the most utterly at home? Allow yourself this epiphany: only by knowing what you know for sure will you ever truly find the peace that comes from God, who formed the world from the beginning of the beginning. If you are breathing, then you are stardust, and you won't feel at home until you find the Star.

Joni Mitchell had it right: We are stardust, we are golden, we are billion year old carbon. And we've got to get ourselves back to the Garden.

In what ways do you sense that you belong to God?

SOLEMNIDAD DE LA EPIFANÍA DE NUESTRO SEÑOR

Polvo de estrella. Resulta que todos estamos hechos de él. Casi todos los elementos de la Tierra fueron formados en el corazón de una estrella. ¿Cómo? Cuando una enorme estrella explota, carbón, oxígeno y nitrógeno son despedidos en el universo, proveyendo los bloques para construir los planetas, y las plantas, y la vida humana. Todo dentro de nosotros está formado por polvo de estrella residual, y aquí viene la mejor parte: tu tienes material en ti tan antiguo como el universo.

Así que considera esto: cuando esos apasionados astrólogos vieron La Estrella, pudo haber sido el polvo de estrella dentro de ellos, depositado en ellos a través de eones, desde el día que Dios llamo al mundo a la existencia, que gritó –¡ite reconocemos! ¿Estamos hechos de Ti! Literalmente te hemos añorado, en cada célula de nuestro ser, desde el principio del tiempo!-

Cada uno de nosotros carga a esos Reyes Magos en nuestro ADN. También nosotros estamos hechos del material que ve a la Estrella y dice –Si, fui creado para buscarte a Ti y para encontrarte a Ti. Nada en mi vida me va a satisfacer hasta que lo haga.-

Y ahora les pregunto, buscadores de Estrellas: ¿En donde se sienten más completamente ustedes mismos, más totalmente en casa? Permítanse esta epifanía: solo sabiendo lo que realmente sabes que es cierto encontraras la paz que viene de Dios, quien formó el mundo desde el principio del principio. Si estás respirando, entonces tu eres polvo de estrella, y no te sentirás en casa hasta que encuentres la Estrella.

Joni Mitchell acertó. Somos polvo de estrella, somos dorados, somos carbón de un billón de años de edad. Y debemos lograr meternos de vuelta en el Jardín.

¿En cuales maneras tienes la sensación de que perteneces a Dios?

GOSPEL

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while. The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn't coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus' contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they'd never met, one they couldn't be sure truly existed. "We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously? "Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem," the Gospel tells us. Who are the seekers in your own life? Maybe it's your cautiously curious co-worker, the neighbor who unexpectedly found peace on a yoga retreat, or your desperately angry child who has chosen, for now, to go their own way. Perhaps they're not overtly headed for Jesus now, not yet. But they may well be seekers of truth in ways we didn't expect. Our invitation is to listen, inquire, and give directions when appropriate. The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God's truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family. Consider asking yourself, "God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answer say about me, and about our relationship?" Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be "overjoyed" at seeing the Light of the World.

Questions of the Week

First Reading
 In the wake of Israel's return from exile in Babylon, Isaiah prophesied the restoration of Jerusalem marked by gifts ranging from the "riches of the sea" to the "wealth of nations." What gifts do you receive from your faith in Jesus?

Second Reading
 Paul wrote of the "mystery" that was revealed to him; namely, the Gentiles and the Jews (all believers) were "coheirs, members of the same body" of Jesus Christ. Why might some people resist this message of inclusivity?

Gospel Reading
 Matthew tells us that the visit of the magi was wrought with fear, danger, and deception. Why do you think the good news of Jesus Christ remains today a threat to some people in the world?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Have you ever experienced a time in your life when everything came together and became abundantly clear? You may have been confused about something, in the dark, at a point of doubt, or unclear as to how to act. You may have questioned someone’s motivation and found yourself coming to the wrong conclusion. Then out of nowhere, the insight came and reality dawned. You experienced an epiphany of sorts! Today, we celebrate Christ’s manifestation to all of the nations of the world. Has it dawned on you yet that Jesus Christ is the answer humanity has been seeking? Jesus is truly the beginning and end of all things and the key to understanding God’s presence in every human heart. Once this real Epiphany dawns on us, we can never see God, ourselves, or one another in any other way. The Divine Light illumines everything and connects the dots.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGÉLIO

La Epifanía del Señor es una de las Solemnidades que más disfrutan los niños en la comunidad hispana (Fiesta de los Reyes Magos), por aquello de que llegan los regalos y las piñatas llenando de alegría este tiempo navideño. Las familias se preparan para la ocasión y disfrutan el reunirse con amigos y familiares cercanos. Sin embargo, aparte de regalos y fiesta, hay muchas cosas que aprender sobre esta solemnidad y, una de ellas es lo que significa la palabra Epifanía, Manifestación del Señor. Cristo se revela de muchas maneras como: Señor y Rey. Y algo importante, la forma de como Dios se manifiesta en Jesús con hechos (Milagros). Todas las manifestaciones de Jesús en su tiempo histórico fueron luces de amor para la humanidad. Las lecturas de hoy, de alguna manera, y de formas diferentes, manifiestan quien es Cristo para el que cree en Él. El profeta Isaías dice: "Levanta los ojos y mira alrededor: todos se reúnen y vienen a ti; tus hijos llegan de lejos, a tus hijas las traen en brazos." San Pablo aclara que "también los paganos son coherederos de la misma herencia, miembros del mismo cuerpo y participes de la misma promesa en Jesucristo." El Evangelio de Mateo nos orienta hacia el punto clave de quien se manifiesta: "Y tú, Belén, tierra de Judá, no eres en manera alguna la menor entre las ciudades ilustres de Judá, pues de ti saldrá un jefe, que será el pastor de mi pueblo, Israel". Estos pasajes de la Sagrada Escritura muestran la universalidad del Mesías, que ha venido a redimir a toda la humanidad. ¡Feliz Epifanía!
