ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

THE REALITIES OF THE FLU AND COLD SEASON

I was called to anoint several people in nursing and rehab centers and the sign on the doors caution that there was an outbreak of the flu in the building. In one building I was required to wear a mask, and in all buildings, to wash my hands before and after being with a resident. So, I caution people in our parishes who are experiencing symptoms of the flu or cold to stay home, to cover their coughs, and not to expect the priest or ministers to give them Holy Communion on the tongue or to drink from the Communion cup. It is sufficient to exchange a nod of the head at the sign of peace (avoid shaking hands). I will repeat these instructions before Mass begins each day.

Fr. Joe, Administrator
