

From our Pastor

Oscar Wilde once wrote, "To live is the rarest thing in the world. Most people just exist, that is all." I may not agree with a lot of what Oscar Wilde believed, but there is truth in that quote – especially when applied to the life of grace. If you are not living in God's grace, you are not really living.

As I go through the moments of my day, I sometimes pause and ask myself, "Am I living this moment in grace?" I easily can tell when I'm not – and then I try to. I want to live in grace; I want to die in grace. Could any life be lived better than that?

These are difficult days filled with darkness. Some are dying. Many more are not living. We weren't born to die, but to live. Bring your life to a state of grace. You will know the difference grace makes.
