*****

Health Concerns: Following the Archdiocese recommendations we have removed the holy water fonts, suspended the sign of peace and the distribution of the Precious Blood during Communion, along with cleaning areas that are frequently touched like door handles. We will continue to follow these practices until we can be sure it is safe to resume them. We want to do everything we can to keep a clean environment so everyone can continue to worship like normal. The Archdiocese has created a website dedicated to the prevention of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) and other more common illnesses. To find that information, please go to the link <https://archkcks.com/coronavirus>.

BOTH PARISHES

Marriage Minute: "Are you willing to die?" This week, St. Paul reminds us that, "While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." As married people, we are called to imitate Jesus by laying down our lives for our spouses, a theme that runs through many of our most cherished love stories. While we see great nobility in one spouse taking a bullet for the other, this is not the normal way we are called to live this out. If we are willing to die for each other literally, we must be willing to die to ourselves in little ways... while our spouse is still a sinner. Here are some ideas: • Pick up those socks without comment. • Answer a bad attitude with lavish affirmation. • Do one of your spouse's chores without getting noticed. • Seek understanding instead of the "last word." • Listen to your spouse without trying to "fix the problem."
