Significant Figures in Christian Thought

Have you heard the names like Augustine or Thomas Aquinas and wondered why they are such a big deal in Christian history? In this course, we will look at significant figures in Christian thought, focusing on the early and medieval church, and explore what they taught and what implications those ideas have for Christians today.

*Sarah Ruble is an associate professor of religion at Gustavus Adolphus College. She specializes in American religious history with a particular focus on the twentieth century. Her scholarly works includes the book The Gospel of Freedom and Power: Protestant Missionaries in American Culture Since World War II. She is currently working on an adult Sunday School curriculum about the history of Christianity and race in the United States.*

All are Welcome!
