Christmas Hospitality—By now, every family should have received a mailing detailing Advent confession times and the Christmas Mass schedule. We also included our neighbors in the mailing and have asked you to share your card with someone else to invite to Christmas Mass. This simple outreach may be an invitation to faith for someone or an opportunity to welcome an individual home who has been away from the Church for awhile or longer. We will also welcome folks who may only attend Mass on Christmas or Easter and those from other denominations or faith traditions. We all have an opportunity to offer hospitality to the stranger, the fallen-away Catholic, the seeker, or someone who has been hurt or disillusioned by the Church. Please do welcome people attending Christmas Mass, perhaps by a smile, a handshake, a greeting, by making room for them in your pew or helping them to pray the Mass. You may not receive an acknowledgment or response for various reasons. It could be as simple as someone may not know what to say or do. Remember that you are an ambassador for Christ. Our inspiration comes from the very act of invitation God gave to see the Christ-child. The angels spoke to the shepherds, a motley crew who lived with the sheep and weren’t likely to be dressed for the occasion. Yet, they left their sheep behind, a gutsy thing to do, in order to behold the Christ. The pagan kings followed a star and were welcomed not by the worldly King Herod, but by the King of the Universe at the manger, his throne room. When they saw the Christ, their lives were affected and changed. Now you act as did the angels or the star. The simple acts of love, as St. Teresa of Calcutta called them, that you extend to one another may testify to, win or keep a soul for Christ. May we, through our words and actions, help others to see and rejoice in the gift of the Christ-child.

Retired Religious Collection-- Thank you for supporting senior religious. A sister writes, “Because of your kindness, our elderly sisters will have the comfort, security, and joy of living out their remaining years here in their home. You truly honor them and their many years of service by your generosity.” Religious across the United States offer sincere thanks for your generosity to last week’s collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious.
