Our Catholic religion; indeed, it is the mark of authenticity that were very evident from the first day, especially as we struggled to leave Cedar Rapids due to the inclement weather. Of all the pilgrimages I have led, this was the most unique and profound. The holy sites we saw and the people we met were graced moments. The group essentially lived the mysteries of our Lord’s life where he lived, taught, healed, died and rose from the dead. Our journey included places that were part of our Blessed Mother’s life as well, all essential to the story of our salvation.

A critical part of our pilgrimage is that we learned of the plight and condition of the Christians in the Holy Land, which is very serious because they are in a political and religious pinchers which threatens to squeeze them out of the land of our Savior. Christianity has had a presence in the Holy Land virtually since Jesus died, rose and ascended into heaven. Now, their numbers are dwindling because they find living there extremely difficult and they are leaving, a serious trend we hope and pray that will be reversed. It is important for us that we support our brothers and sisters there, and do what we can to advocate their lives in the Holy Land.

As time goes by, I am sure that the Holy Land pilgrims will have many opportunities to share and act upon the graces they have received. Once a pilgrimage is made, one’s faith and life is affected and changed. May the graces we received become a part of your life as well.

A Message from Archbishop Jackels Promoting the February 11-12 Annual Appeal for Catholic Charities— “One of our mission priorities is to teach stewardship as a way of life and a course of action. As a way of life, stewardship teaches that we do not own anything; all is on loan from God, entrusted to us to manage. And as a course of action, stewardship teaches us to manage according to God’s good pleasure, that is, to provide what is needed to live in dignity to the poor, our dependents, and ourselves. Helping those who cannot protect or provide for themselves is an essential practice of our Catholic religion; indeed, it is the mark of authenticity for followers of Jesus. The Archdiocesan Office of Catholic Charities helps us help the poor: organizing the work, enlisting volunteers, and securing donations, such as with this annual appeal. As you consider how much you will share in the annual appeal, think about what Jesus said: Give and gifts will be given to you ... The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you. In anticipation of your sacrificial gift, thank you. AM.”

From Tyler Raymond, Seminarian from Our Parish

St. Joe’s: I hope everyone is doing well! Flu season has hit the seminary and one by one the seminarians are getting sick. Thankfully I got my flu shot but it also means I’ve been making a lot of store runs for Gatorade and medicine! But it’s also given me the opportunity to bring communion to the sick, and not to be insensitive, but good practice for my next step in seminary! (Continued next column.)
