Pastor’s Pen

Laetare Sunday—is what the Fourth Sunday of Lent is called. The name is taken from the Entrance Antiphon of Mass, which begins, “Rejoice, Jerusalem . . .” The somberness of the Lenten celebration is lightened today, which includes the rose colored vestments, in anticipation of the joyful celebration of Easter. Lent bears the character of a rigorous retreat and this Sunday represents half-way, a rest stop, a pause from the rigor.

Pay attention to the light and darkness imagery, used especially in the second reading and the gospel. The man born blind in the gospel moved from literal and spiritual darkness to seeing fully in the light as he professed his faith in Jesus and worshipped him. The religious leaders of the day, who supposedly lived in the light of faith, were actually in darkness because they refused to see, that is, believe in Jesus.

For those preparing for baptism at the Easter Vigil, this gospel speaks powerfully of their journey to faith in Christ and their commitment to him. For the baptized, the gospel encourages ongoing faith in Jesus, to always walk in his light, but also warns that darkness may come if you embrace the worldly and walk by its allurements. Sin is also darkness and all are called back to The Light, Jesus, through repentance and forgiveness. Don’t let the gift of faith at baptism dim or fade. Always walk in and by the light of Christ.

For hundreds of millions of people...dirty, diseased water leads to a cycle of sickness, lack of education, poverty and lost hope. It is needless suffering. Our parish Lenten giving project this year supports the Sister Water Project. You are invited to offer your Lenten almsgiving to the parish giving effort, on behalf of the lives saved and the systems. You are invited to offer your Lenten almsgiving to the parish giving effort, on behalf of the lives saved and the communities served by this project. Our parish goal is to collect enough to cover the cost of a well. Donations may be dropped off at the school or parish office throughout Lent. (Please make out checks to St. Joseph Church, with “Sister Water Project” included on the memo line. Please indicate “Sister Water Project” on envelopes containing cash donations.)
