70th Anniversary of St. Joseph School—Welcome to all who have come to celebrate this significant anniversary of our parish school. God has blessed us over the years with wonderful students, administration, faculty, staff and parents who have been a part of our school. Thank you, St. Joseph Parish, for your support of the school through your time, talent and treasure over the past seventy years. Our parish wouldn’t be the same without our school and your support. Anniversaries offer an opportunity to look back and to anticipate the future. Reflecting on the past, we give thanks for the marvelous ways God has worked in the school through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. It has been an environment of faith for the students seeking an understanding of God, themselves, life and the world through the richness of the Catholic Tradition. Let us praise God for the work he has done. Looking to the future, we can see our school as continuing the work God has entrusted to it by being that oasis of faith, beacon of hope and an excellent academic institution to educate our children. May we always depend upon God for what we do and offer in our parish, and may he richly bless the future of our school.

Catechetical Sunday—is celebrated this weekend. We focus upon our role as disciples, learners and followers of Jesus. We always have something to learn about our faith and to integrate into our lives. In a special way, we recognize and thank those who teach the faith, the catechists among us. Parents are the chief and primary teachers of their children in the ways of faith. Let that never go unsaid, unnoted or unrecognized. The home becomes the school of faith which is taught by word, example and the Catholic culture that is established in the home. We also acknowledge and thank those who formally teach the faith as catechists in the Catholic schools, religious education programs, adult faith formation and the RCIA process. You support, supplement and reinforce the faith that is taught at home or nourish the adults who live the faith and pass it on to others. Thank you for using your beautiful charism to promote the faith and support its development in our parish.

The DACA Program—Archbishop Jackels has communicated with the Archdiocese via The Witness, and with priests, regarding the President’s recent action to terminate the DACA program. I share with you excerpts of what he said followed by an action item.

“The President has terminated the DACA program, which addressed the situation of people without legal status who were brought to this country as minors.

As a result, Dreamers, as the people affected are called, fear deportation, have to put plans for the future on hold, and maybe even feel betrayed by the only country they know.

Why should Catholics be concerned about this? A number of reasons come to mind:

1. The God–given dignity of every person – made in the image of God, regarded as children of God – is not given due respect in the way Dreamers are being treated.

2. It ignores the principles for a just society articulated by Catholic social teaching, such as the right to life and to the things needed to live in dignity, including protection from harm all the way from the womb to the tomb, and devotion to the common good.

3. It represents a one-sided approach to human rights and duties. For example, Catholic social teaching recognizes the right of a nation to secure its borders, but also its duty to have a reasonable policy to receive immigrants, as well as the right of people to emigrate.

4. It doesn’t reflect what Jesus taught through his response to the Pharisees, that the rule of law has to consider the real-life circumstances of people, or it results in treatment that is inhumane, without compassion, lacking in mercy.

Laws are important. Laws represent the behavior expected of responsible citizens in a just society. But laws can be bad, broken, or unfairly applied. When they are, like our present immigration laws, they need to be corrected accordingly.

What can we do? Pray to God for the poor people affected by the termination of the DACA program, for all immigrants, and for lawmakers, that with wisdom and courage they can agree on a legislative solution in a timely manner.

We can also write our legislators, urging them to find a way to fix a broken law. And in that regard, the organization known as "Justice For Immigrants" has set up an easy "click and send" letter on their website: https://justiceforimmigrants.org/action-alerts/action-alert-support-dream-act-2017/.”

The Our Call to Share Collection which is taken up in our parish this weekend, supports the efforts of the Catholic University of America, The Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Archdiocesan Hispanic Ministry, Black and Indian Missions, Catholic Home Missions, and World Missions. Please be as generous as possible, using the envelope you received in the mail this past week. If you forgot your envelope, please bring it next weekend or drop it off at the parish office. Thank you for your prayerful and financial support of these important efforts.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION
You’re Invited to Join a Small Group!

There will be various small groups of parishioners gathering throughout the school year to connect and grow in faith. Small groups consist of about 5 to 10 members and use various Catholic video or book studies to guide conversation. The groups will be starting to meet again in September, so now is the perfect time to join! There are two formats available for groups: 1.) General small groups are open to any adults of the parish and typically meet every other week. Various faith topics are discussed. For more information and to sign up, visit www.stjoesmarion.org/small-groups; 2.) Couples Small Groups are for married couples to connect with other couples and discuss marriage related topics. This year, they will meet once a month based on participants’ availability. For more information and to sign-up for one of these, visit www.stjoesmarion.org/couples-small-groups.

Interested in Becoming Catholic? You’re invited to join RCIA!

Those interested in becoming Catholic typically enter into the process called RCIA, which stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. RCIA is an opportunity to join others in learning about the Catholic faith to grow in relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church and prepare for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and/or Confirmation). Inquirers are always welcome! RCIA will meet on Thursdays from 6:30-8:30 PM, starting Sept. 14th. Please contact Deacon Dennis if you are interested in participating in RCIA.

The Parish Library is Open!

You are invited to take advantage of our Parish Library that opened in August. Stop by and see the many different Catholic resources available including books, Bible Studies, CDs, and DVDs. We will continue to add new materials to the library so stop by often and check them out. Library hours coincide with the parish office hours which are 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday, Thursday, and Friday, and 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Bringing back Fun Days will require some significant infrastructure upgrades, equipment replacement costs and unique start-up expenses. The electrical service for the parish grounds will need to be revamped for electrical access and lighting. There will also be expenses for building games, fencing, tables and chairs. The timeline for the largest expense of the electrical service is October 2017. We are thankful for the commitment of a group of electricians and contractors who will donate their time but the equipment and supplies will need to be purchased.

The parishioners who completed the St. Joseph Fun Days survey and expressed a desire to make a financial gift were contacted through a mailing at the end of July. We recognize that not everyone completed the survey. If you did not receive the mailing but are able to and wish to make a donation to assist with this project, please contact one of the Steering Committee members or send it to the parish office c/o Fun Days. If you did receive the mailing and haven’t made a donation yet, it isn’t too late. We can help with any special request also - just give one of us a call. We truly appreciate your commitment to Fun Days and the St. Joseph community.
