Ordination of Parishioner Tyler Raymond - Friday, May 25, will be a day of joy for the Archdiocese and our parish as native son Tyler Raymond will be ordained a deacon by Archbishop Jackels at St. Raphael Cathedral, Dubuque, IA, during Mass that will begin at 7:00 PM. You are invited to attend this joyous occasion. It would be a good family excursion and a wonderful way to pray for and promote vocations to the priesthood.

Locally, Tyler will return to St. Joseph on Sunday, May 27, to serve as deacon for the first time at the 10:30 AM Mass during which time he will preach his first homily. There will be a reception for him after Mass in the church basement. Please make every effort to attend.

On behalf of the parish, I wish to congratulate Tyler upon his ordination and thank his parents, Gary and Julie, and his sister, Haley, for the roles they had in supporting Tyler as he discerned his vocation to the priesthood. Being ordained a deacon is the last step to the priesthood. A vocation often comes from the home through the faith, love, witness and nurturance that is found there. Thank you Gary, Julie, Haley, your extended family and to all of those here at St. Joseph who helped nurture his vocation. May you know many blessings because of the good work you have done.

Pentecost - is this weekend which celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and the birth of the Church. The Spirit binds us to Christ who leads us to the Father. The Spirit works closely with Jesus to sanctify us, to make us holy. There are many and multitudinous gifts the Spirit bestows upon the Church and individuals to bind us together as people dedicated to Christ in worship of God. These gifts builds the Church and causes the Kingdom to spread throughout the world. Without the gift of the Spirit, we would be ignorant of Christ. The Spirit opens our minds and hearts to our Savior and binds us to the saving effects of Jesus’ death and resurrection. Come Holy Spirit, come and enkindle in our hearts the fire of your love!

St. Joseph Fun Days: Faith, Family, Community - is just around the corner. Fun Days was reinstated to offer a massive parish-wide way of building our internal community and reaching out into the general Marion community. Being a volunteer for this event helps to build the existing community at St. Joseph as you work together with people you know and those you don’t. Volunteering is an opportunity to open your circle of acquaintances and friends by putting names to faces you’ve always seen but didn’t know or by getting to know new people. There is a great need for and plenty of opportunity to volunteer for this event. Help to build, strengthen and expand our parish community through volunteering.

Prayer for the Immigrants - Jesus taught the corporal works of mercy thereby setting standards of treatment we offer to others. Feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty and sheltering the homeless are among the merciful acts Jesus taught.

Recently, a commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the ICE raid in Postville, IA, was observed and a new raid just occurred in Mt. Pleasant, IA, on May 9. These events not only accentuate the complexity of the immigration issue in the United States, but also call for a response by all who believe in the name of Jesus.

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque is offering many services to the immigrants which includes access to legal counsel, material, spiritual and emotional support to families and those separated from their loved ones, and prayer. Below is a prayer for immigrants which I encourage all of us to pray. Prayer leads to action and action to prayer.

Justice Prayer for Immigrants

Come, O Holy Spirit!
Come, open us to the wonder, beauty, and dignity of the diversity found in each culture, in each face, and in each experience we have of the other among us.

Come, fill us with generosity as we are challenged to let go and allow others to share with us the goods and beauty of earth.

Come, heal the divisions that keep us from seeing the face of Christ in all men, women, and children.

Come, free us to stand with and for those who must leave their own lands in order to find work, security, and welcome in a new land, one that has enough to share.

Come, bring us understanding, inspiration, wisdom, and the courage needed to embrace change and stay on the journey.

Come, O Holy Spirit, show us the way.

Parish Elections - for the Pastoral Council, Faith Formation Commission and Catholic School Board are this weekend, May 19-20. Registered parishioners eighteen years of age or older are eligible to vote which may occur online or the weekend of the election after the homily and before the collection.

Memorial Day Mass - Please join in the Mass honoring our loved ones Monday, May 28 at 9:00 AM, at Mt. Calvary Cemetery, next to the office, 375 32nd St. Dr. SE Cedar Rapids. Bring lawn chairs. If it is raining, the Mass will be celebrated at St. Matthew Church, 2310 First Ave. NE.

Live-Streaming of Ordination - The Archdiocese of Dubuque will live-stream the Transitional Diaconate Mass on May 25 and the Priesthood Ordination Mass on May 26 from the Cathedral of St. Raphael. All are invited to watch online at: www.DBQArch.org/Live to join in the celebration and prayer of thanksgiving.

The live broadcast of the Mass of Ordination to the Transitional Diaconate will begin at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, May 25. James Goerend, Thomas Heathershaw, Joshua Link, Michael McAndrew and Tyler Raymond will be ordained for service in the Order of the Diaconate.

The live broadcast for the Mass of Ordination to the Priesthood will begin at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 26. Jacob Rouse and Andy Upah will be ordained for service by the Most Reverend Michael O. Jackels, Archbishop of Dubuque.
