VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- Pope Francis has proclaimed September 1st for Catholics to formally mark as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. This day of prayer, the pope said, will be a time for individuals and communities to “reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live.”

The Pope expressed his hope that the new day will serve as a call to the faithful to an “ecological conversion” whereby their encounter with the Risen Lord is evident in their care for the world around them.

Join us in praying the Rosary after both the 8am and 6:30pm Masses this Tuesday, September 1st. Want to know more?

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES

About the Program

The Spiritual Exercises at St. Peter Chanel in Hawaiian Gardens, California was instituted in August of 2006 with an initial group of two people meeting with Father Ed Broom, OMV. From that quiet beginning more than 6,700 people have experienced the Exercises.

Among the fruits that participants have experienced are:

1. A deeper, more intense prayer life;
2. An ability to examine one’s conscience more closely;
3. Discernment of spirits – the ability to distinguish the voice of the Holy Spirit from the whisperings of the evil spirit;
4. A deeper understanding and love of the Sacrament of Confession;
5. A greater love of Jesus present in the Holy Eucharist;
6. A love of Holy Scripture; and last but not least,
7. A deeper filial relationship with Mary, our mother.

The Format of the Course

The course is an adaptation of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Those Exercises have been the source of great spiritual growth for 450 years. The Exercises forge saints and this program is rooted in the Universal Call to Holiness. Christ commands us: “Be holy, as your Heavenly Father is holy” Mt. 5:48. We are striving to become saints, even great saints.

The program extends over 70 days with assigned meditations based in the Exercises and drawn from Holy Scripture. Every week the attendees hear a presentation that teaches the Ignatian method of prayer and outlines the structured themes of Ignatius and provides encouragement and direction.

This is not a Bible study course. The attendees don’t become Bible scholars, they become Bible lovers! All adults are invited! New Catholics, lifelong Catholics, non Catholics, revert Catholics, all are invited.

Materials

There is no charge for the course. The parish supplies all the materials. Attendees must have a Catholic Bible. Donations are accepted to help defray the cost.

May Our Lady, who gave the Spiritual Exercises to St. Ignatius of Loyola, inspire you to accept the challenge!

OUR NEXT SESSION BEGINS SOON!

“Amazing Win, Amazing Loss: Miss America Living Happily... Even After”

Magnificat invites you to come and be inspired by Angela Perez Baraquio’s story of adversity, tragedy, triumph and hope! Angela Perez Baraquio, also known as “Angie”, has been a light to thousands of people. As the eighth of ten children, Angie was born of Catholic Filipino immigrants who traveled to America in search of a better life for their family. Angie would grow up in Hawaii to win the prestigious titles of Miss Hawaii 2000 and Miss America 2001, making history as the first Asian-American woman, the only Filipino, and only teacher to win in the game’s history. She was also appointed to President George W. Bush’s Council on Service and Civic Participation.

Her Miss America title allowed Angie to travel all over the country to inspire others with her personal story of faith, adversity, triumph, tragedy and hope. She is recognized as an outstanding role model for young women struggling to find identity and meaning. Angie also has a message for strong families and support for human life. “I am a teacher, first” as Angie has been an elementary school teacher and is passionate about education. She is now an author of “Amazing Win, Amazing Loss: Miss America Living Happily, Even After” that shares her own personal triumphs and the loss of her younger brother to suicide in 2006. Married to her high school sweetheart, Angela is a mother of four, classroom teacher, business owner and TV Host, appearing on networks as diverse as MTV and Fox News. Through it all, her story remains one of not giving up and leaning on your faith in good times and bad. She is truly inspiring and a faith-filled role model for teens and women of all ages. Come and see this woman of faith and how God continues to work through her for His children! Bring a friend to be uplifted and blessed!

COMMUNITY LIFE

HELP SEND OUR CHOIR TO ROME!

The St. Martin de Porres choir members have been invited to sing at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, in celebration of Vatican II’s 50th Anniversary. This December, our music ministers will join with singers from around the world as voices are raised in praise to God by experiencing a Papal Audience with the Holy Father, Mass at the Basilica di San Pietro and a gala concert in the Basilica di Santa Maria sopra Minerva. We hope our music ministers have helped you joyfully pray and experience the love of God’s Holy Spirit through sacred song, and ask for your prayers and support of upcoming fundraising activities as preparations are made for this once-in-a-lifetime event. Grazie!

HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin’s.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church’s teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdpyl.org.
