The program provides shelter, employment services, food and other supportive services for employable single adults who have found themselves homeless. In past years Saint Martin parishioners have been responsible for making our rotation (December 12th through January 2nd this year) one of the most successful and satisfying for our ISN guests. “You are members of Christ through baptism. And now in Christ’s name you are administering the Sacrament of Matrimony to each other that by your sacred bond a new cell may be formed within his body, the church, to the advantage both of human society and the kingdom of God.”

Roman Liturgy

The sacrament of Matrimony brings a couple to the altar of God to celebrate not only their proud union, but also their loving union with our Lord, individually, as a couple and as a family. They work together, helping to fulfill each other as they guide themselves and their loved ones in their journey to the Lord.

For many, completing the sacrament of matrimony allows for participating in the full communion of our Catholic faith. To participate in all the sacraments and graces God has made available to us.

“Amazing Win. Amazing Loss: Miss America Living Happily . . . Even After”

Magnificat invites you to come and be inspired by Angela Perez Baraquio’s story of adversity, tragedy, triumph and hope! Angela Perez Baraquio, also known as “Angie”, has been a light to thousands of people. As the eighth of ten children, Angie was born of Catholic Filipino immigrants who traveled to America in search of a better life for their family. Angie would grow up in Hawaii to win the prestigious titles of Miss Hawaii 2000 and Miss America 2001, making history as the first Asian-American woman, the only-Filipina, and only teacher to win in the pageant’s history. She was also appointed to President George W. Bush’s Council on Service and Civic Participation.

Her Miss America title allowed Angie to travel all over the country to inspire others with her personal story of faith, adversity, triumph, tragedy and hope. She is recognized as an outstanding role model for young women struggling to find identity and meaning. Angie also has a message for strong families and support for human life. “I am a teacher, first” as Angie has been an elementary school teacher and is passionate about education. She is now an author of “Amazing Win, Amazing Loss: Miss America Living Happily, Even After” that shares her own personal triumphs and the loss of her younger brother to suicide in 2006. Married to her high school sweetheart, Angie is a mother of four, classroom teacher, business owner and TV Host, appearing on networks as diverse as MTV and Fox News. Through it all, her story remains one of not giving up and leaning on your faith in good times and bad. She is truly inspiring and a faith-filled role model for teens and women of all ages. Come and see this woman of faith and how God continues to work through her for His children! Bring a friend to be uplifted and blessed!

HELP SEND OUR CHOIR TO ROME!

The St. Martin de Porres choir members have been invited to sing at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, in celebration of Vatican II’s 50th Anniversary. This December, our music ministers will join with singers from around the world as voices are raised in praise to God by experiencing a Papal Audience with the Holy Father, Mass at the Basilica di San Pietro and a gala concert in the Basilica di Santa Maria sopra Minerva. We hope our music ministers have helped you joyfully pray and experience the love of God’s Holy Spirit through sacred song, and ask for your prayers and support of upcoming fundraising activities as preparations are made for this once-in-a-lifetime event. HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin’s.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church’s teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdpyl.org.
