CONVINCED: A DOCUMENTARY ABOUT THOSE WHO BECOME CATHOLIC

Why would intelligent, successful people give up careers, alienate friends, and cause havoc in their families...to become Catholic?

As he was considering his own journey into the Church, Donald Johnson traveled around the country to find out, visiting with some of our culture’s most interesting and articulate Catholic personalities. The result is the film Convinced, which is premiering on Oct 16th at the Freed Theatre at Christ Cathedral.

Convinced features stories and insight from converts, reverts, and experts in the field including Scott Hahn, Jennifer Fulwiler, Abby Johnson, Patrick Madrid, Jeff Cavins, Patrick Coffin, John Bergsma, and more! Following the screening will be a reception and a Q+A panel featuring several stars of the film. Tickets are available at www.convincedmovie.com! Mark your calendar and invite a friend!

2015 PSA Campaign

There is still time to make a pledge to the 2015 PSA Campaign!

HAVE YOU PLEDGED?

$ 500,000
PARISH GOAL

$450,000
$400,000
$350,000
$300,000
$250,000
$200,000
$150,000

Thank you!
Diocese goal met.
All pledges now come back to St. Martin!

When we began this year's PSA Campaign, we set a goal as a parish to raise $500,000. The first $113,000 we raised went to the Diocese to support the Deaconate, Catholic education, and a dozen other worthy endeavors. Every dollar after that comes back to St. Martin's to support our ministries here at our parish home.

To date, thanks to the generosity of 476 St. Martin's parishioners, we have raised $415,000 toward our $500,000 goal!

If you have already pledged, thank you! If you have not, I encourage you to prayerfully consider doing so now. I'd like to see our parish reach the goal we set at the beginning of the year.

No pledge is too small (or too large!) - every pledge counts, and every dollar helps us to get closer to our goal! Envelopes are available outside after mass or in the parish office. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

If you do not receive an envelope, please contact the parish office at (714) 970-2771.

Engage! Say “I Do.”

The INTERFAITH SHELTER
Interfaith Shelter is still looking to fill the leadership slots for both Transportation and Special Events for this year’s rotation at Saint Martin’s, December 12th through January 2nd in the Hall. These positions could be filled either by an individual, a family, friends or a group. Transportation coordinates the schedule of those parishioners who volunteer to drive our guests to work and/or to the laundromat, easy peasy. Special Events coordinates both the Christmas exchange and the east coast New Year’s Eve party (6-9PM in the Hall). Here again, with the involvement of many of our very generous parishioners, it’s an easy and fun task. Please, give it some thought; ask your family members, friends, or group members to join you. It’s fun, and it’s very rewarding, and we’re committed to providing our guests with a “five star” experience this year. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net.

A STORY CONCERNING THE INTERFAITH SHELTER
A few years ago during our annual rotation, I got a call from one of our guests asking if he could get a ride back to the church. He was coming from work and just missed his bus transfer, which meant that if he tried to walk or wait for the next bus, he would be late for check-in and dinner. I drove down to pick him up, and in the half hour that it took to do so, my life was changed dramatically.

Peter (as I will call him), looked familiar when I first met him a few days before at the orientation we have with our new guests the first day of our rotation. When I mentioned this on the way back to church, he said I too looked familiar. Well, by the time we arrived at the hall we discovered that we had first met less than a year before when I purchased a thumb drive for my computer at the Placentia AT&T store where he was working.

Peter, who was living in Anaheim with his wife and two daughters; one attending Esperanza H.S. and the other CSUF, lost his job. He was, however, promised a new job in Sacramento, but when he arrived discovered that the position had already been filled. He returned home, unemployed and broke.

Peter entered the Interfaith Shelter program, and with the support of ISN and the participating churches was able to find work and save almost $5,000 before graduating out of the program. Peter comes back from time to time to act as an overnight and weekend supervisor.

Peter is just one story that I have to tell, and I’m just one of hundreds of volunteers who have the opportunity to work with our guests each year. Perhaps you’d like to have a story to tell as well. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net. for more information about how to get involved.

2015 World Mission Sunday Appeal
It’s Our World on Mission

Your prayers and generous support offered to the Society for the propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday directly benefit the mission Church—places like Mongolia and Zambia, Papua New Guinea and Indonesia, where young churches are growing, filled with zeal for the faith, but lacking resources for its outreach to families and those in need.

It’s our world on mission, and through your prayers and assistance on World Mission Sunday, you too are “on mission” - supporting the loving services offered to the poor half a world away by priests, religious and lay leaders. Thank you!

“You are members of Christ through baptism. And now in Christ’s name you are administering the Sacrament of Matrimony to each other that by your sacred bond a new cell may be formed within his body, the church, to the advantage both of human society and the kingdom of God.”

Roman Liturgy

The sacrament of Matrimony brings a couple to the altar of God to celebrate not only their proud union, but also their loving union with our Lord, individually, as a couple and as a family. They work together, helping to fulfill each other as they guide themselves and their loved ones in their journey to the Lord.

For many, completing the sacrament of matrimony allows for participating in the full communion of our Catholic faith. To participate in all the sacraments and graces God has made available to us.

TO TRUST AGAIN
A special marriage preparation program designed for couples entering re-marriage after one or both partners has experienced loss through death or divorce.

This is a 10-hour program presented by married couples in an experiential style using a variety of exercises that cover many aspects of marriage. Participants will have the opportunity to recall the richness of their own experiences, gain deeper insights, and develop strategies to empower their own relationship.

To Trust Again sessions are offered four times each year: in the winter, spring, summer, and fall. The sessions are two Sunday afternoons each and are held at Holy Family Cathedral in Orange, CA. After submitting your registration (attached), a confirmation letter will be sent confirming the scheduled date and detailed instructions as to the location of the session on the Holy Family Cathedral campus.

The decision to marry is a lifelong commitment to one another and to the faith community of the Church. Those who enter a covenant relationship that is permanent, exclusive and open to life must give careful consideration. Re-marriage preparation programs for the engaged are designed for Catholics and non-Catholics alike to deepen a couple’s awareness of the challenges of living together in a Christian, Catholic marriage.

Through discussions, exercises and presentations by lay married couples, participants are enabled to recall the richness of their own experiences. Segments contain elements of effective communication, conflict resolution, intimacy, finances, dual careers, family blending, families of origin, parenting, extended families and God’s role in your new marriage.

HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin’s.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church’s teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdpyl.org.
