“Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus” wealth, but she, from her poverty.”
"Throughout the month of November, we will be honoring and remembering our departed loved ones.

There are many ways we invite you to remember your loved ones:
- Book of Remembrance by the Baptismal Font where you can add names of deceased family or friends
- All Souls Envelopes to be included in Daily Masses throughout the month of November.

Our banners include names of our deceased who had funerals at St. Martin's during the last twelve months.

We prayerfully remember all those who have gone before us ‘marked by the sign of faith’.

SUNDAY PRESCHOOL

3-4 Year Old Class: The lesson today, Welcome to the Church, will discuss the Sacrament of Baptism.

Last week's Highlight: Sitting in the prayer circle the children were asked to pray for someone in their family they love and are thankful. Cameron raised his hand and softly answered, "I love Colin," while pointing to his friend Colin sitting next to him in the prayer circle.

4-5 Year Old Class: The lesson today, Jesus Helps Us, will talk about the many sick people Jesus healed and encourage the children to think of ways parents take care of them when they are sick.

Last week’s Highlight: After an exciting Halloween weekend the children were full of energy! The group had a difficult time sitting for more than a brief moment but the laughter echoing in the room was contagious. Luke, Josiah, Daniel, Rickie, and Jayden had a blast just being together, building community.

Come enjoy a faith-filled morning of friends & fellowship.
Our guest speaker Brendan O’Shea

Seven years ago, a man brought a case of water to downtown L. A. to help the homeless. In time, that case of water has evolved into food and clothes for 300. St. Martins has adopted Skid Row as their newest ministry. Come, listen on November 14 as Brendan O’Shea tells how this ministry has caught fire, and how more than a thousand people have had the opportunity to experience, what that man discovered. We’ll see you right after the 8:00 AM Mass (about 8:45) in the St. Elizabeth Room. All are welcome and if you have any questions, please contact Elizabeth Blush by phone: 714-319-1452 or by email: elizabeth.blush@st

SENIORITY CLUB NEWS
November is our favorite month to recall the many blessings that we are most grateful for! Please join us on Sunday, November 15 from 2 - 4 pm in the Parish Meetings Rooms to hear testimonies of gratitude given by two young men from Santa Ana. These two brothers were, at one time, recipients of the weekly meals served to the homeless and to needy families, by the Loaves & Fishes Soup Kitchen. Today, these two brothers still come weekly to the soup kitchen; but as volunteers! Due to their continuous hard work and determination to succeed, they have been awarded Loaves & Fishes scholarships to further their educations in college. You will be impressed and deeply moved by their heart-felt testimonies Everyone is welcome! Please contact Irene Gonzalez at (714) 779-1812 for further information.

Kidsave is recruiting host families to participate in the Weekend Miracles and Summer Miracles programs here in Southern California. The Weekend Miracles program connects older foster youth, ages 9-17 with volunteer host families. Hosts commit to spending at least two days a month with their youth for a minimum of one year. Hosts advocate to find their youth a permanent family while also acting as mentors. Some hosts adopt the children they host, some become their legal guardians or caregivers. The Summer Miracles program brings children from Colombia, ages 10-14, who are growing up in orphanages and foster families to communities across the U.S. to stay with host families for a 4 to 5 week summer visit. Come and meet one of Kidsave’s alumni and how the program has impacted their lives at an information meeting here at Saint Martin de Porres on the evening of Monday, November 23th from 6:30-7:30pm in the St. Matthew's room. “GOOD GRIEF! HERE COMES CHRISTMAS!

For most people, the holidays are highly anticipated days of family celebration, re-union, gift-giving and fun. Others dread the holidays or simply endure them. For them, the holidays represent loss and loneliness.

If you have recently lost a loved one or you have had losses in the past that cause you to associate sorrow with the holidays, you are invited to this retreat.

A simple time of retreat and reflection for persons who have suffered loss and are experiencing bereavement. In addition to reflection, practical suggestions for how to “be” during the holiday season will be offered. Treat yourself to a little TLC as we move through this busy time.

There is no cost for this retreat on:

WE REMEMBER

The month of November is the traditional season for Catholics to prayerfully remember all those who have gone before us ‘marked by the sign of faith.’ Following the Solemnity of All Saints that remembers all those who have lived the life of faith with integrity and are now one with the Lord in heaven, we celebrate All Souls Day. This day of prayer for the dead provides the opportunity for us to surround our beloved dead with our prayers, especially through the Eucharistic celebration, as we companion them on their journey to the Father.

Each and everyone one of us will be touched by the reality of death in the course of our journey of faith. We have all experienced the painful leave-taking of a loved one in death as we prepare for our own ‘going forth’ through death to eternal life in Christ.

The funeral rites of our Church help us to remember that no one truly dies alone but is accompanied by the community of believers as eternity opens for each one of us. The reformed liturgy of our Church and particularly its funeral rites provide opportunities for family and friends of the deceased to actively enter into this moment of passage as we shape a truly fitting farewell for our loved ones.

The Diocese of Orange has recently published two helpful resources for families and individuals who are called upon to plan a funeral celebration for a loved one. They are a Guide to Catholic Funerals and Words of Remembrance – Guide for Writing a Funeral Reflection. Both resources are available in the parish offices, Catholic cemeteries as well as online. These resources can be a helpful guide to families as they help shape a funeral celebration that both respects the funeral tradition of our Church as well as personalize this important moment of remembrance and prayer.

The most advantageous time of preparation is before the crisis of an immediate death. In the course of a grave illness of a loved one, it would be both beneficial and comforting for family members to familiarize themselves with these guidelines. May they assist you in preparing a fitting and worthy celebration of prayer and remembrance for a brother or sister as they prepare for the fullness of eternal life.

HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin’s.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church’s teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdpstyl.org.

OUTREACHMinistrySummaries- JULY & AUGUST 2015

Craig Park Ministry Report – July 2015: On July 12th, the Craig Park Ministry took place at the La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church in the city of La Habra. Our SMdP Volunteers served 56 of our family members (48 adults and 8 children) a hot lunch and later distributed weekly groceries. Lunch consisted of Sloppy Joe’s, golden corn, cookies, fresh fruit and cold lemonade. The La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church added cake and French toast to the meal. Second meals and take-home lunches were plentiful on this day, and we were fortunate to help provide groceries to two of our homeless brothers. SMdP Outreach provided 15 Boxes of Love to our families. This was made possible by the great response from SMdP Parishioners who contributed to this program. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped serve the working poor of our community—YOU ARE A BLESSING!!!

Craig Park Ministry Report – August 2015: The Craig Park Ministry was held on Sunday, August 9th, at the La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church in the city of La Habra. A total of 65 people (45 adults and 20 children) were served a hot lunch. Sloppy Joe’s, golden corn, fresh fruit, cookies and cold lemonade were served that afternoon to all our family members. After lunch, weekly groceries were distributed. The La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church parishioners also distributed backpacks filled with school supplies to all the children. Thanks to all the amazing SMdP Volunteers—YOU ARE A BLESSING!!!

Isaiah House Ministry Report – July 2015: On July 1st, a team of five St. Martin de Porres volunteers prepared salads for the Civic Center and Isaiah House. The tossed green salad had every delicious and healthy green vegetable. We were given this assignment with open arms. We were a small team but efficient in the preparation of these salads for over 220 people. After the salads were delivered, we prepared a traditional summer favorite for the 20 Isaiah House women. This meal consisted of hot dogs, bake beans and salad. Leah wanted to clear the refrigerator of the items. The 20 ladies thanked us for sharing our time and dedication to serve. We all felt good for our time there.

Due to the small number of ladies of Isaiah House, the St. Martins team seem to be limited in the number of warm meals we were asked to prepare. Hopefully this will change. The Isaiah House kitchen is now fully operational.

Leah at Isaiah House informed me she may be considering another scheduling change. I will send out a general notice to all our volunteers if a change in schedule does occur. With God’s blessings, I hope a new schedule will not impact our tremendous support.
Isaiah House Ministry Report – August 2015: On August 5th, a team of four St. Martin de Porres volunteers served a delicious cream-chicken entree along with corn casserole, fruit salad, and apple pie alamode dessert. (The ladies of Isaiah House loved the dessert to no end!)

Prior to serving dinner to the women, we assisted the volunteers for the Civic Center meal group in loading their van. We were a small team but efficient in the preparation of the night’s dinner and assisting those in need. There was plenty of food for the Isaiah House women this night, with many coming for seconds.

Again, the ladies thanked us for sharing our time and dedication to serve. We all felt good for our time there. Leah, Isaiah House facilitator, asked if we were still interested in changing back to the third Wednesday of the month to accommodate more volunteers. I mentioned we would stay with our next date of September 2nd, and I would send out a general notice to see how many prefer the third Wednesday of the month instead of the first Wednesday of the month.

The number of ladies at Isaiah House is still about 20-plus. Maybe this will change, but we had a great group who gave it their all while we were there. With God’s blessings, we continue to serve and receive many blessings in return.

Soup Kitchen Report - July 2015: St. Martin’s Soup Kitchen Ministry served over 100 hungry souls at the Southwest Community Center (home of the Soup Kitchen) for the month of July. A big "THANK YOU" to our July Team Leaders and volunteers—Your service and devotion to the Soup Kitchen Ministry is greatly appreciated! Now on to the reports...

On Saturday, July 18, St. Martin’s fed 45 hungry folks at the Soup Kitchen in Santa Ana, and 25 folks came back for seconds. It was raining, so our numbers were down. The attendees enjoyed Sloppy Joe’s, coleslaw, apples & oranges, cookies, coffee & punch. All were appreciative and asked us to thank the parishioners of St. Martin’s for making the meal possible! Many thanks to those who donate to Outreach and a special thank you to the wonderful volunteers. God Bless you all!!!

Sunday, July 26, was a perfect day of service in Santa Ana — the sun was out with clear blue skies, and we had a turnout of about 60 locals. Along with the Team Leader, we had eight people volunteer, and they were all eager to help, which made it a relaxed day. Our menu was: Hot Dogs smothered in chili, Corn, Watermelon, Lemonade, and M&M Chocolate-chip cookies for dessert. We were prepared for 100 people and had a strong turnout, serving lots of seconds...our guests for the day were well fed. The team had some extra time today, but everyone stepped up and kept smiling throughout. This was the perfect team for a perfect day...and everything went PERFECT!!

Soup Kitchen Report - August 2015: St Martin’s Soup Kitchen Ministry served 90 hungry souls at the Southwest Community Center (home of the Soup Kitchen) for the month of August thanks to our ever-giving Team Leader couple and their amazing volunteers! YEAH Soup Kitchen Ministry! Note: We were advised by the Health Department this month that homemade items are no longer allowed to be served at Southwest Community Center; only store-bought items may be served.

Apparently the word didn’t get out that our team was serving our world-famous chili-cheese dogs, because only about 40 hungry souls showed up on Sunday, August 23rd, for our delicious spread. The delicious meal consisted of tossed green salad with an enormous variety of ingredients, chili-cheese dogs, sliced peaches, tortilla chips, green beans, chocolate-chip cookies and champagne-flavored punch. Many of the diners came back for seconds, and a few health-conscious ones wanted only salad and green beans. Everyone left happy, including our team of St. Martin servers.

Saturday, August 29th, was a sweltering day in Santa Ana, but the Soup Kitchen crew kept their cool and served a delicious lunch to 50 hungry and grateful souls, with 10 coming back for seconds. Lunch consisted of turkey sandwiches with lettuce, tomato, cheese, mayonnaise, and mustard on a Kaiser roll, with pickles on the side along with a bag of potato chips. Ice-cold lemon tea and a dessert of ice cream sandwiches were also served. As you can imagine, the ice cream was a big hit with the hot and hungry lunch crowd. Lunch began at noon, and by one o’clock, the crew had served, cleaned up, packed up and was headed home. Everyone involved felt blessed and was looking forward to the next time.
