One does not live on bread alone

Our Parish Mission & Vision
St. Martin de Porres is a Stewardship and Hospitality parish. As Catholic Christians guided by the Holy Spirit, we are Christ's disciples dedicated to faith formation, worship, community life, and service. All are welcome as we use our unique gifts to serve the world as a visible sign of God’s love.
Our Symbolic Jubilee Doors

This year’s church environment was inspired by the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Pope Francis hopes that we will find ourselves “rediscovering a path back to the Lord.” “Let us allow God to surprise us. He never tires of casting open the doors of his heart and of repeating that he loves us and wants to share his love with us” – Pope Francis

Our ‘Symbolic Jubilee doors’ in the Sanctuary were hand-painted, the twigs were soaked and shaped into a heart, and the 33 nails/thorns designed and crafted by our wonderfully talented Environment Committee. You might also see the shadow of a crown of thorns overhead. We hope the environment will inspire you to pray and reflect on the mystery of God’s mercy during our Lenten season.

Moments of Mercy

First Sunday of Lent

On Ash Wednesday Pope Francis commissioned "Missionaries of Mercy," priest-confessors sent forth worldwide as "living signs of the Father’s readiness to welcome those in search of [God’s] pardon." In a way, though, Pope Francis challenges all of us to become "missionaries of mercy" (Misericordiae Vultus, 18) by living Lent in this Jubilee Year of Mercy "more intensely as a privileged moment to celebrate and experience God’s mercy" (MV, 17).

Francis bids us make the prophet Micah’s words our own: “God . . . who does not persist in anger forever, but delights rather in clemency. You will cast into the depths of the sea all our sins" (Micah 7:18, 19).

Having experienced God’s mercy ourselves in the unconditional forgiveness of our sins, how eager we should be to invite others to know the peace of God’s boundless mercy; perhaps even to experience, through our reaching out in gentle kindness and compassionate care, something of God’s unconditional love for them.

Eagle Scout Accomplishments

St. Martin De Porres would like to recognize two outstanding young men in the parish, Eagle Scouts (Troop 706) Matthew Daniel Caballero and Joshua James Runnoe. Both Scouts have raised funds to help enhance the community. Through their hard work they were able to complete their projects with great success. Caballero’s project provided two large band equipment carts to Yorba Linda Mustangs Band and Guard. These carts are now used to transport large percussion instruments and band equipment to the field for rehearsals and performances for years to come. Runnoe led his troop volunteers to construct a new vinyl fence enclosure for the Messiah Church. He was able to raise over $3,000 in project funds. The Messiah Church has provided a meeting place for his Boy Scout troop for the past 25 years.

How Does Someone Become Catholic? They Join the RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin’s.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church’s teachings, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdpyl.org.
