Orang County Campus

Graduate Course

Theology 685:
Thomas Aquinas: God and the Good Life

Instructor: Dr. Chris Kaczor, PhD

Schedule: Mondays and Thursdays, 7-10 p.m., May 23 - July 14.

Location: Christ Cathedral Campus, Tower of Hope, Third Floor Conference Room.

Detailed Course Description: This course focuses on one of the most famous and influential theologians in the Catholic tradition, Thomas Aquinas. We will study Thomas’s “five ways” to argue for God’s existence, as well as his answer to the question, “How can an all-good, all-powerful God allow evil in the world?” We will also discuss Thomas’s understanding of how we can speak about God, God’s own nature as knowing and loving, as well as Thomas’s conception of other characteristics of the God. The second half of the course will turn to Thomas’s understanding of the good life based on the theological virtues—faith, hope, and love—as well as his discussion of other virtues—practical wisdom, temperance, justice, and courage—needed for human happiness and a just communal life.

Available for full credit. Also offered for the special audit price of $395. (20% tuition discount to all employees of the Diocese of Orange and its schools, including JSerra Catholic High School.)

Contact registrar@augustineinstitute.org to enroll.

Corpus Christi Procession

"The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life."
Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1324.

It's coming! St. Martin's for the first time will celebrate a Corpus Christi Procession! Corpus Christi is Latin for the Body of Christ. It will be held on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, May 29, after the 12:15 PM mass. Join fellow parishioners in this joyous celebration as we profess our faith in the Eucharist.

This ceremony is an opportunity for others to see what sets us apart as Catholic Christians. The Catholic Church is the only religion to have the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord Christ is contained under the appearances of bread and wine.

This almost 800-year tradition draws our God close to us through the Holy Eucharist. It is a way for us to openly and outwardly show our belief that Jesus Christ is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

The monstrance will be carried by our priests under a baldachin (canopy) and will visit four altars. With prayers and hymns, we will reflect on the Mystery of the Most Holy Eucharist as we escort our Lord around our church property.

If you would like to help with planning, please contact the Adoration committee at (657) 888-4631 or adoration@smdpyl.org

Help celebrate Father Sy’s 25 years of priesthood by picking up your copy of his new book, “Dear Parishioners”, available on June 12, 2016!

Read what people are saying:

"As I was reading an early copy of Father Sy’s book, I was reminded of the many Sundays when I read his messages in the church bulletin several years ago. What spoke to me right away, was his words of wisdom related to thanking God for the prayers that were not answered. There are many powerful and moving messages, which I know everyone will find comforting and Spirit-filled when they read it for themselves!"

Moments of Mercy

Ascension Sunday
Between Ascension and Pentecost, the apostles "devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women and Mary the mother of Jesus" (Acts 1:12-14). Mary’s presence at the center of the disciples’ circle of prayer provides "a source of comfort and strength," says Pope Francis, for Mary’s "entire life was patterned after the presence of mercy made flesh." At the foot of the cross, Mary witnessed Jesus’ forgiveness of his executioners, a supreme expression of the depths to which God's mercy can reach. “Mary attests that the mercy of the Son of God knows no bounds and extends to everyone, without exception,” Francis notes. Being able to live that unconditional forgiving mercy is the grace we pray the Holy Spirit to bestow. During these days of prayer before Pentecost, in this month dedicated to Our Lady, "may the sweetness of [Mary’s] countenance watch over us," Francis prays, "so that all of us may rediscover the joy of God's tenderness"

Support For Troops - Donate Event Tickets

In April, 2010 I started an activity (Support For Troops) to obtain tickets to various sporting and entertainment events for active duty military and veterans being treated by the Veterans Administration.

I have since obtained tickets to Baseball, Basketball, Hockey, Mixed Martial Arts, Rodeo, Tennis, Circus, Concerts, Auto racing, Motorcycle events, and more. All of these tickets have been donated by people like you.

All of the tickets I have received have been donated. We generally have one or two events per month and take from six to fifty individuals to the events. Sometimes I have been fortunate by the generosity of some donors to get a suite at an event, fully catered with extra's thrown in to make it a really special event for these worthy troops. You cannot imagine how special these guys feel being treated in such a manner. This is the kind of treatment they deserve and the kind of treatment I would like to get them for all events.

This has been a successful program insofar as providing tickets to troops at no cost to them, but I need help in keeping this going. I am not asking for money from anyone. I am asking if anyone has or knows someone (friend, neighbor, relative, business associate, etc.) or if their company or any company they do business with can help me out with any tickets to any type of sporting event, concert, show, fishing trip, golf event, or other event that would interest and entertain these heroes in a first class style. My goal is for them to have a great time with no cost to them and to show them our appreciation and respect for their service.

Please consider donating tickets to something the troops would be interested in, I would be most grateful.

---Special request--- Baseball. This year I have no donations of Angel's or Dodger's tickets for any games, and these are in great demand--

Thank you and please contact Bob Jones for donations at 714 809 8640. Like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/SupportForTroops
