St. Martin’s First Corpus Christi Procession

Saint Pope John Paul II urged all Catholics to participate in Corpus Christi Processions as a public profession of our belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. This is our faith. We will follow the Blessed Sacrament as we pray, sing, and reflect on this great Mystery. Please join your fellow St. Martin parishioners for our first Corpus Christi procession on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Sunday, May 29, 2016, after the 12:15 p.m. mass. Everyone will surely be moved by the grandeur and solemnity of this great feast. Afterwards we will gather in the hall for a potluck meal and fellowship which will provide a wonderful chance for people to ask questions. Here is a link to last year’s procession with our Holy Father, Pope Francis: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0bej68TRtM. For more information, please contact the Adoration committee at (657) 888-

Moments of Mercy

Trinity Sunday
Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
The word mercy, Pope Francis declared in his announcement of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, "reveals the very mystery of the Most Holy Trinity" (Misericordiae Vultus, 2). For mercy is how God comes to meet us; mercy is the fundamental law helping us recognize everyone as brothers and sisters; mercy is the bridge connecting God and humanity, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness. God’s self-revelation as a life-giving, love-sharing Trinity of Persons draws us closer to God in friendship and communion. Both Judaism and Islam consider mercy one of God’s most important attributes. Israel unceasingly proclaims God boundless in mercy. Islam addresses the Creator as "Merciful and Kind," believing divine mercy limitless, its doors always open. May this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis prays, open us to more fervent dialogue, deepen our mutual understanding, eliminate all closed-minded disrespect, and drive out every form of violence and discrimination.

The Jubilee of Mercy
An Extraordinary Holy Year 12/8/15-11/20/16

On Easter Sunday your SMDP Knights handed out the perfect book for the Year of Mercy, Beautiful Mercy: by Pope Francis, Mathew Kelly, and many more contributors. "In the end we each must fall at the feet of God and beg for mercy. In the end it all comes down to mercy. Let us now strive to show others the mercy we hope to receive." Mathew Kelly. We recommend all take advantage of the Jubilee of Mercy, it is not too late. Take a Pilgrimage to our Local Holy Doors and celebrate the sacraments of penance and reconciliation. Pope Francis has given us this great opportunity. For more information regarding activities related to this Extraordinary Holy Year, and for local Holy Doors visit, http://occatholic.com/the-year-of-mercy-whats-it-all-about/

Human Trafficking Speaker on May 23 CANCELED

We will reschedule in the fall.

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

The parish Corazon ministry completed its first build of the year on May 7, 2016. As usual, the day was filled with a lot of work, a lot of smiles, a lot of great fellowship, and even some tears (of joy) when the keys to the home were turned over to the family at the end of the day. This build would not have been possible without the generous contributions of time and talent (from the volunteers who went on the build) as well as the treasure donated by so many of you to make this happen. Thank you for stepping up -- again -- to make this a reality. Our last currently scheduled Corazon build for 2016 is on November 5, 2016. If you'd like to go on this build, please send an E-mail to Tim Garvey at ttgarv@yahoo.com. He'll fill you in on what you need to do from there. If you'd like to contribute to this build, please drop off a check made out to Corazon -- not St. Martin's -- at the parish office. Your generosity inspires us. Thanks again for your generous hearts. May God bless you and yours always. The Corazon Team

Thank you...

To all who have prayerfully and generously made a pledge in support of our church. Our goal this year is to have 1,000 SMDP families make a pledge! Every pledge, no matter what the size, is valued and appreciated and will go to support the many wonderful ministries in our parish.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to put our gifts at the service of our Lord. Your gift is an important sign of unity for our Catholic faith. Thousands of lives are impacted through the vital ministries and services supported through the PSA and our Stewardship. Pledge envelopes are available in the back of the church or at the parish office.

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you to go and bear fruit.”
