Small Christian Communities Continue to be an active presence at St. Martin de Porres

During the summer months, many of our Small Christian Communities have been doing fun and exciting things in addition to their regular meetings. We began the summer with a large gathering of over 200 persons participating in all the different SCC's. Specific group activities have included taking a field trip to see the Vatican Treasures, visiting the Mission in San Juan Capistrano, touring the Orange County and LA cathedrals and helping out at the Soup Kitchen. We currently have over 25 groups meeting on various days throughout our parish. Many of our groups still have room for new members. Are you interested in being part of a dynamic, home-based ministry where friends gather in small groups and reflect on the Gospel message and how it applies to them? Look for us at the upcoming Ministry Expo, September 10-11th, to find a group and time that fits for you. Contact Mark or Kris Jablonski, (714) 524-9757, mark.jablonski@stjoe.org for more information.

Moments of Mercy

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Sunday's "Parable of the rich fool" delivered a compelling reason to do the right thing—now: "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you" (Luke 12:20). Today, Jesus warns us: "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come" (12:40). Though we do not know when our Master will come, we do know what our Master expects to find. Jesus expects us to be vigilant (12:37) and diligent (12:42) in our work for the kingdom, but also filled with reverent mercy toward our fellow servants and ourselves. Hopefully, Jesus’ warning not to get drunk and beat each other up (12:45) does not apply to us literally! But what changes do I need to make, right now, so that the many people outside "the Master's house" will want to come inside to experience the healing comfort of Jesus' own mercy in the compassion of Jesus' modern-day disciples?

The Estate of Emil Vena

As reported last month, a bequest from the Estate of Emil Vena has been received by our Parish. One half of the bequest was directed to Catholic education for needy families. We are pleased to report that the funds have been deposited in a restricted, interest-bearing account, and an annual amount will be forwarded to a needy parish in the Diocese of Orange. The Pastor of that parish will determine the final recipients from among parishioner families who have children attending a Catholic school.

The first donation from this fund in the amount of $10,000 will be made to St. Joseph Parish in Santa Ana this month. Fr. Efrain Flores, the Pastor of St. Joseph’s, will make the specific tuition assistance awards to needy families, and he is very appreciative of the assistance from our parish. We are also very appreciative of the late Emil Vena for remembering his parish in his will, and making this special gift that will be long remembered.

The Spread of West Nile Virus in Orange County

The Orange County Mosquito & Vector Control District (OCMVCD) has identified several areas in Orange County that have increased risk of West Nile Virus (WNV) transmission to humans. So far this year, mosquito samples have tested positive for WNV activity in the cities of Anaheim, Irvine, La Habra, La Palma, Orange, Seal Beach, Stanton, and Yorba Linda. Dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decision a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I thank Bishop Brown for his work with Catholic Cemeteries here, it is my turn now to support the efforts of the Catholic Cemeteries and invite you to ask questions about the information you will be provided.
