Faith Formation

Do you know a Catholic who now feels separated from the Church?

The “Returning Catholics” ministry is designed to help you or your friend(s) feel at home in the Catholic Church once again, to answer questions, and to explain changes in the church that may have taken place since the participants were last active.

The series of six sessions will be held on Thursday evenings in the St. Elizabeth room starting Oct. 6.
The “Coming Home” team, many themselves Catholics who returned after a long absence, is planning a special program to help you regain direction in your faith, sacramental preparation or just provide support for the journey.

Use the Contact Us feature on the parish web site under Returning Catholics for questions or if you plan to attend or write garyp@smdpyl.org.

Moments of Mercy

September 18, 2016
Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mercy is one thing, malpractice quite another. Why, then, does the defrauded master in Jesus' parable praise the devious steward? Jesus shows by example how to sanctify material goods: by placing all our resources, indeed our very selves, at the service of others. No matter how costly such service, or how minimal the return, such charity is the wisest investment, yielding a reward that is literally out of this world. For Amos and Jesus, authentic worship of God demands practical charity toward our neighbor. Paul, too, declares that the only worship acceptable to God is offered by a community rich in charity. Liturgy must be matched to life, "lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument" (1 Timothy 2:8). This Jubilee Year of Mercy challenges us to live as "children of light," as devoted to self-sacrificing service as "the children of this world" (Luke 16:8) are to serving themselves, as enthusiastic for God's kingdom of justice as we are about less-enduring treasures.

SMdP Interfaith Shelter is Seeking New Director

For many years, parishioner Jim Thomsen has directed the annual Interfaith Shelter Network here at Saint Martin’s during the program’s three week rotation over Christmas and New Year’s. The program has grown tremendously and involves almost 500 parishioners each year, serving our guests who take up residence in our Parish Hall during what is probably the most appropriate time of year for this type of ministry.

We are looking for an individual, or couple, who possess organizational skills, have the necessary time, and enjoy serving men and women who are working hard to once again become productive, self-supporting citizens in our community. If you would like more information about this volunteer position and what it entails, please contact Deacon Nick at nicks@smdplyl.org or Deacon Denis at denisz@smdplyl.org.

Dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decision a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I thank Bishop Brown for his work with Catholic Cemeteries here, it is my turn now to support the efforts of the Catholic Cemeteries and invite you to ask questions about the information you will be provided.

Bishop Kevin Vann
