God is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

Saint Pope John Paul II started Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Vatican in 1981, soon after he became Pope. Despite his busy schedule, he had a daily hour or 2 of Adoration, throughout his life. It is said he made all his major decisions on his knees before the Blessed Sacrament. “… let us adore the most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist,” he said in a 1993 homily in Spain. “Prostrate, we adore this great mystery that contains God’s new and definitive covenant with humankind in Christ.”

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY
PLENARY INDULGENCE

As this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy winds down (ending Nov. 20), we would like to remind you of the rare opportunity Pope Francis has given us to purify our souls, the Jubilee Year of Mercy Plenary Indulgence. It is a chance to be purified even beyond reconciliation. One of the requirements for this special indulgence is that you pass through a Holy Door. Previously, that required a trip to Rome. This Jubilee year, however, because Pope Francis wanted as many as possible to receive the indulgence, the entrance to each cathedral throughout the world and certain shrines are deemed and blessed as Holy Doors.

In the Diocese of Orange, the Holy Doors are located at Holy Family Cathedral in Orange and Mission Basilica in San Juan Capistrano.

The requirements to receive the indulgence are listed here:

- Walk through one of the Holy Doors designated in the area
- Recite the Creed
- Go to confession and receive Holy Communion (within 20 days of each)
- Say the Our Father and the Hail Mary, offering them for the intentions of the Holy Father
- Finally, make a commitment to strive to live a life without sin—what theologians call a “detachment from sin.”

Please consider taking this rare opportunity before the Jubilee Year of Mercy comes to an end.

Moments of Mercy

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Jubilee for Prisoners

One of the most moving images of Pope Francis’ ministry comes from Holy Thursday. Slowly, deliberately, Francis kneels down before prisoners—men, women, young, old, Christian, Muslim—and washes their feet, recalling Jesus admonition to Peter: “If, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another’s feet” (John 13:14). On today’s Jubilee for Prisoners, whose rights the Church bids us advocate, Jesus declares in the Gospel, “to [God] all are alive” (Luke 20:38). Have we “imprisoned” anyone figuratively, but no less painfully, passing harsh judgment, then refusing our respect, acceptance, even affection? This month of All Saints and All Souls bids us reflect on our eternal destiny and prepare for it. Respect for ourselves and others, souls and bodies, practical care for neighbors and strangers: such witness affirms that we view our present in light of our future, and believe that, even now, in our midst, stands the Lord of life, the living Jesus.

Vocations Week is November 6-12
Get to Know & Pray for our Religious Vocations….

One of our Religious Vocations is the oldest daughter of parishioners Greg and Peggy Leger. We are blessed to have the Leger family become part of our parish in 2012. Their daughter’s birth name was Katherine Ann Leger, but now is called Sister Advocata. Over the holidays or when she visits family, please introduce yourself to Sr Advocata and thank her for her fiat to serve our Lord in such a profound way. We are all blessed by her faith, love and service.

Sister Maria Advocata Nostra SSVM professed her final vows with the Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matara, which is part of the Religious Family of the Institute of the Incarnate Word. The order was founded in 1988 in Argentina. Currently, she is serving in Peterborough, Ontario, Canada. Website is http://ssvmusa.org/

An interesting God- incidence is that our parishioner, Nataly Gomez, who entered a convent in August to discern her religious vocation in this very same order SSVM. Currently, she is a novice at the convent in Washington DC. What are the chances that we may have 2 called to serve in that same order. Praise the Lord for sending more workers into the Vineyard for the Harvest of Souls!

The weekend of November 14/15 has been designated Wheelchair Weekend and our Knights will be asking for your donations to purchase wheelchairs for these veterans.

For information on joining the Knights of Columbus e-mail: koc-8238@smdpyl.org

WINGS– Come and Broaden your Understanding

On November 9th, Fr. Quan Tran, Vicar for Ecumenism at Christ Cathedral in Orange will speak on his recent paper, “A Catholic Inquiry into the Quran and its Teachings on Religious Freedom.” Our full schedule of fall speakers can be found in the church vestibule. Veteran's Day Ceremony – November 11th 2-4pm
Please come out to Veteran’s Memorial Park on Friday November 11th to observe and participate in a ceremony as we honor the men and women who have fallen for our country and as we add to the memorial a statue of a “battlefield cross.” We will also read the roll call of the fallen heroes from all of Orange County contained in the Gold Star Walkway, and sadly we will be adding the names of two more recently KIA from Orange County. The ceremony will include the presentation of colors by a military color guard, bag pipers from the Los Angeles Police Emerald Society Pipes and Drums, a wreath presentation by the American Legion, and the playing of Taps. Please bring a chair or blanket to sit on as seating is limited and reserved for the elderly and handicap.

Christmas Can Tree Needs Your Help…. Each year our Saint Martin’s Outreach Center receives approximately 2-3 tons of food, which helps to feed the needy throughout the Christmas Holidays and into the New Year. This is made possible through a program that was started by a couple in our parish 30 years ago, collecting food items in the same neighborhoods each year. This year, they need your help. They’re looking for both individuals and families who can spend a few hours on Saturday and/or Sunday (December 3rd and 4th), or in the afternoon on Tuesday and/or Wednesday (November 29th and 30th). As a group, they drop off grocery bags in the neighborhoods and then pick them up that weekend. If you would like help, or more information, please contact Jim and Cathy at either JimandCathy@earthlink.net or call 714-932-5176.
Community Life

Coming Your Way Soon

Watch for an important announcement next Sunday about your chance to share in good will with your fellow parishioners. Then plan to join us November 16, 7:15pm, to learn how you can participate.

Remembering Our Departed Loved Ones

Throughout the month of November, we will be honoring and remembering our departed loved ones. Our loved ones names who had a funeral at St. Martin’s during the past year have been included in the banners hanging above our Blessed Sacrament Chapel. If you would like to have loved ones remembered at the Masses throughout November, please pick up an All Souls envelope near the Baptismal Font and return to the Parish Office. We also encourage you to write their names in our Remembrance Book also located next to our Baptismal Font.

Calling on your Prayers and Support for the Interfaith Shelter Network!

St. Martin’s Faith Community is blessed to host the ISN program during the Advent and Christmas season from December 17, 2016 through January 7, 2017. Thanks be to God for Lenny Castillo, a member of the Knights of Columbus, who has volunteered, once again, to be our Food Coordinator, a key role in the success of our ministry this year.

In order for our Shelter to run smoothly, we need to fill a few key leadership roles.

Transportation Coordinator: coordinate our volunteer drivers to transport guests who may need a ride to one of the major local bus stations or a ride to work.

Overnight Coordinator: coordinate the scheduling of parishioners who act as overnight supervisors.

Special Events Coordinator: coordinate the Christmas gift exchange, New Year’s Eve party, and donations of reading materials, board games, etc. Please let us know as soon as possible if you are interested in filling one of these key leadership roles, and look for additional ISN information in future parish bulletins. Contact Jody & Ronnie Martin at 714-777-5707 (or email to isn@smdpyl.org) for more information and how you can share your “time and talent”

In the words of Pope Francis, “There is only one way that opens wide the entrance into the life of communion with God: this is Jesus, the one and absolute way to salvation. To Him alone can the words of the Psalmist be applied in full truth: ‘This is the door of the Lord where the just may enter’ (Ps 118:20).”
Dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decision a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I thank Bishop Brown for his work with Catholic Cemeteries here, it is my turn now to support the efforts of the Catholic Cemeteries and invite you to ask questions about the information you will be provided.

Pro-Life Positions and the Death Penalty

According to Saint John Paul II, “New evangelization calls for followers of Christ who are unconditionally pro-life: who will proclaim, celebrate and serve the Gospel of life in every situation. A sign of hope is the increasing recognition that the dignity of human life must never be taken away, even in the case of someone who has done great evil.” (Mass, St. Louis, MO., 1-27-99) The same protection for the sanctity of human life talked about so often with abortion extends to the death penalty. All souls, innocent or flawed, have intrinsic value, as we are all created in God’s likeness and are precious in the eyes of our Lord. The death penalty – which will be repealed by Prop 62 – destroys the opportunity for redemption and the ability of God’s mercy to work in the lives of those affected. For more on forgiveness and the sanctity of all life, visit www.catholic.org or visit our table after mass. St. Martin de Porres Respect Life & Family
