Sunday Childcare & Preschool

Childcare volunteers are desperately needed. Please prayerfully consider whether you can offer an hour each week or month to this ministry.

Childcare: St. John’s Childcare is open during the 8:45 and 10:30 am Masses. We serve children 9 months through 2 years of age. Please register and enjoy!

Sunday School: Sunday School Classes are open for registered children ages 3 through 6 years of age.

Parents, here is an easy way to connect with the lessons:

3-4 year class: The children will discuss family, both in the home and church. Ask your child whom they consider a part of his/her family.

4-5 year class: We will teach the children about the importance of rules to guide us in life. Ask your child two rules which are created to protect them.

Kinder class: We will discuss the ways we celebrate as a family. Ask your child what is his/her favorite way to celebrate with family.

Child Faith Formation Classes

Humility does not mean denying your talents or abilities, but it does mean accepting them as God-given gifts for you to serve God and others. God wants humility and servanthood; not pride and lording it over others. In God’s sight, we are all brothers and sisters and we should treat each other with equal love and respect. We all tend to want to be recognized, to be important, to be respected. But Jesus says if we want to be elevated in God’s eyes, we need to humble ourselves in the sight of men. Jesus, help me grow in the virtue of humility.

The Parish Welcomes newly ordained Deacon, Mark Murphy. Mark served his first Mass on Sunday, October 29, at the 12:15 Mass.

My sincere thanks to the staff and parishioners of St. Martins who have formed, supported, prayed for, and welcomed me. I am delighted to be God’s Deacon in your service.

Love and blessings,
Deacon Mark Murphy

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

Saint Pope John Paul II started Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament in the Vatican in 1981, soon after he became Pope.

Despite his busy schedule, he had a daily hour or two of Adoration, throughout his life. It is said he made all his major decisions on his knees before the Blessed Sacrament.

“...let us adore the most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist,” he said in a 1993 homily in Spain. “Prostrate, we adore this great mystery that contains God’s new and definitive covenant with humankind in Christ.”

Call 657-888-4631 or write to adoration@smdpyl.org to begin a new practice of a holy hour before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.
Remembering Our Departed Loved Ones

Throughout the month of November, we will be honoring and remembering our departed loved ones. Those who had a funeral at St. Martin’s from mid-October, 2016, to the present have been included in the banners hanging above our Blessed Sacrament Chapel. In addition to our banners, we also have a book available by the baptismal font so you can inscribe the names of our beloved dead who will be remembered in prayer throughout the month of November.

“Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.” …
He who loves his wife loves himself.
Genesis 2:24
Home Visitation, connecting the dots and doing God’s work, a Home Visitor testimonial:

We had another interesting experience yesterday doing Home Visitation. MaryAnn and I went out around 10am. As we approached the first house we saw someone in the yard. When he came over we introduced ourselves and showed him the contact information. He verified that it was them. His wife's name was listed as the head of household. He said that his wife is Catholic and he is Lutheran. "We must do something about that" I retorted. He smiled and said that his wife has been praying all their married life for that to happen. When his wife came out she was quite surprised to see us. She wanted to know all about the Home Visit ministry, how many houses we go to, and how we got their names, etc. We explained all that. She has done the returning Catholic program. They have actually attended the recent Marriage Encounter workshop. She said that they had a lot of issues at the beginning of their marriage because of their two faiths but now they have agreed to leave each other alone. They have no children. They were a very sweet couple. She even asked for prayers for her dad who is suffering from cancer. We went away thinking that he will convert. We made a difference in showing them that somebody from church cared enough to visit them. They were surprised and they were very appreciative of the visit. The fact that his name was on the contact sheet made the husband feel like he was part of our church. He was smiling the whole time. —Mellony Shanthikumar

Don’t Miss Out on Men’s Retreat

The St. Martin de Porres “Brothers in Christ Men's Retreat” is scheduled for Nov. 17 - 19, 2017, and there are still a few rooms available. If you are interested, please visit the parish office to complete a registration form and pay the $200 fee. Mark Price returns for this year’s retreat after his amazing portrayal of “Judas” at the 2016 Men's Retreat. If you need additional information, please contact Jody Martin at (cell) 714-858-0140, or email jodymartin717@gmail.com.
The Other SMdP Women’s Retreat is Dec 1-3

Even though we will have a retreat planned by and for St. Martin’s Women on April 27-28, 2018 at St. Martin’s, we are continuing to do our annual silent retreat at Mater Dolorosa in Sierra Madre. Each of these retreats is a very unique experience, and we encourage those who can do so to attend both. The annual silent retreat for women of St. Martin and surrounding parishes will be held Friday evening, Dec. 1 through Sunday noon, Dec. 3 at the Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center in Sierra Madre. This year’s theme is “Going Without Knowing: Pitching Our Tent in Faith.” Even though participants are silent during most of the retreat, previous attendees will attest to the peace, as well as laughter and joy, they’ve found in focusing their attention on hearing the message of God. Private rooms are available, and carpools will be arranged. Join the women of St. Martin as we enjoy a personal encounter with God through a balance of communal prayer, inspirational talks, silence and solitude, natural beauty and sacramental grace. This sacred time will bring renewal for your body, mind and spirit. The suggested donation is $250, with a non-refundable deposit of $50 due by Nov. 17. Contact Maureen Williams at 714-693-1931 or mwpr@twc.com or Suzanne Mills at 714-993-7868 or suzmills@sbcglobal.net for registration or details.

We often single out Paul of Tarsus, the great “Apostle to the Gentiles,” as if he were a Lone Ranger, someone who single-handedly spread Christianity throughout the ancient Mediterranean world. The real St. Paul, however, was not only a zealous preacher but also an effective leader of a large missionary organization, with many associates and affiliates! Looking closely at what we know about the life and ministry of St. Paul, both from his own letters and from the Acts of the Apostles, we’ll see how Paul carefully organized and efficiently led his expanding apostolic enterprise, and how his methods can be adapted and applied in our own lives and our parish communities today!

The OLMC Monthly Speakers Series is presented as a program of Continuing Education in the Adult Education and Faith Formation Ministry at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church Newport Beach
