SMdP Vocations News!

Praise the Lord! Our parishioner, Nataly Gomez, has professed her first vows of poverty, chastity, obedience and Marian consecration on November 1st, the Solemnity of All Saints in Washington, D.C. Her new name is Sister Nova Sion, SSVM. (See Photo: Top Row, 2nd from right) She professed vows with 13 other young Novices after completing their Novitiate period of prayer, study and discernment. Please pray for these junior sisters as they continue formation for another 6 years until they profess perpetual vows as holy spouses of Christ and missionaries for the Third Millennium. For more info on the Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matara go to ssvmusa.org.

Pray for Religious Vocations

On the 3rd of each month, our parish prays for Vocations to the Priesthood & Religious Life. Father Sy asks all to unite in prayer for this need. On Sunday, Dec 3rd after 12:15 pm & 5:30 pm Mass, we place our Lord in the Monstrance on the main altar & pray Rosary for Religious Vocations during Adoration. Join us for a silent Eucharistic Holy Hour Cenacle for all clergy after evening Rosary. If you be at the Church, then please pray for these intentions on the 3rd of each month.

Thank God for sending laborers into His vineyard. We are blessed with multiple parishioners discerning religious vocations.

Child Faith Formation Classes

This is the last Sunday of the Church year, and Gospel focuses on the Final Judgment. Jesus will ask us:

Jesus says,

\[ \text{“Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of Mine, you did for Me.” Mt 25} \]

How did we care for the poor, the sick, the suffering? Jesus may ask if we fed the hungry, gave the drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, cared for the sick, visited the lonely & imprisoned, buried the dead. These are the Corporal Works of Mercy.

Jesus, the King of kings, was born into poverty in a manger, no crib….in a stable, no home….in danger of death, no safe haven. He identifies with the plight of the poor, the homeless, the persecuted, the imprisoned, the rejected, etc. As our King shows us, He did not come to be served, but to serve. Let’s follow His example.

We are also called to do Spiritual Works of Mercy. We should instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, admonish the sinners, bear wrongs patiently, forgive offenses, comfort the afflicted, pray for the living & the dead.

When Jesus comes for us, this Gospel says that God is going to focus on how well did we love. Jesus explains that how we love the “least” among us is how we love Jesus. Let’s to be ever ready to meet our Lord, by loving one another, as He loves us.

Quotes from the Greats

Jesus does not permit the world he has conquered for God on the Cross to continue to exist as it was. He implants God’s rule in it. In men’s hearts. Divine love has become ‘at home’ on the earth through him. In the hearts of the poor, of children, of the merciful, the gentle, the persecuted, in pure hearts. In canonized saints...Together they constitute the Kingdom.

~ Hans Urs Cardinal Von Balthasar

This begins a weekly series of “Quotes from the Greats.” Each week the bulletin will feature a pithy saying or short quote from the great thinkers, theologians, saints, Councils etc., wherever they popped up in salvation history. These sayings are not necessarily aligned with the seasons of the Church, but are instead timeless truths for all generations to ponder. I hope they will add to your meditation and edification in the supreme richness of our Faith. Enjoy!

Stephen Duffin,
Director of Faith Formation

With heartfelt gratitude, we thank and bless them for their dedication to this ministry that helps feed the poor in our community. If you are or others you know are interested in leading this ministry or have questions, please email Gretchen Heyman at heymangc@roadrunner.com. THE MOST REVEREND KEVIN W. VANN
BISHOP OF ORANGE

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I thank Bishop Brown for his work with Catholic Cemeteries here, it is my turn now to support the efforts of the Catholic Cemeteries and invite you to ask questions about the information you will be provided.
