Quotes from the Greats

What are you doing, O Magi? Do you adore a little Babe, in a wretched hovel, wrapped in miserable rags? Can this Child be truly God?... Are you become foolish, O wise men... Yes, these men become fools that they may be wise.

~ St. Bernard of Clairvaux

_Wise Men Still Seek Him....._
These Wise Men were watching & were wise enough to follow the star to find Jesus. They left their familiar & comfortable lives to worship the Messiah, the Christ child in humility bearing gifts. Have we had an Epiphany in our lives? Do we humble ourselves, go to great lengths to worship God & give God the gifts of our hearts?

_Welcome Back to Classes which resume this week!_

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

_O Come Let Us Adore Him!_

_O Holy Night, the Child Jesus is here at last! He is here, present body, blood, soul and divinity in the Holy Eucharist. Come adore him, as the shepherds did on that cold and glorious night 2000 years ago. With our Blessed Mother and St. Joseph, let us gaze in tender wonder at the Precious Child who is Almighty God Himself._

“Home Visitation, connecting the dots and doing Gods work,” a Home Visitor testimonial:

Recently, Emmi and I went out on our usual visits to five families. As we start every outing we prayed that the Holy Spirit would help us with our visits. At our last home we came to an elderly gentleman who was about to leave and obtain food for his wife and himself. He told us that he had not been to Mass in a very long time due to his wife having Parkinson’s and Alzheimer’s. He explained how exhausted he was physically. At that moment I knew why we were called to this ministry. We assured him that St. Martin’s was there to help. Consequently we were able to connect them with the Eucharist Ministry to the home bound, a priest visit and a food assistance program. Emmi delivered a meal to them last Thursday. What a blessing to discover those in need and offer them the Lord in the Sacrament of communion. I thank God that we were able to help two of His children. ~Mary Coulter

Simbang Gabi (mass at the crack of dawn) or Misa de Gallo (rooster’s mass) is a daily 9-day Novena starting from December 16 to Christmas Eve. Simbang Gabi traces its roots to Mexico. In 1587, the pope granted the petition of Fray Diego de Soria to hold Christmas mass outdoors because the church could not accommodate the huge number of people attending the evening mass. Simbang Gabi strengthens relationships and faith among families and parishioners as they celebrate and prepare for the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ...Together.

WINGS
Celebrating 30 years

In 1986, a group of St. Martin’s women first met to discuss forming a parish women’s group. After much planning, WINGS flew from a dream to a reality in January 1987, when 75 women got together to hear a speaker and meet in small groups to discuss the day’s topic.

Today, WINGS is the largest women’s group in the Diocese, with nearly 170 active members from St. Martin and surrounding parishes. WINGS will celebrate this milestone anniversary on Wed., January 10 at 9:00 am in the Parish Hall. The founders and all moderators have been invited to be part of the program, which promises to be nostalgic, sentimental, entertaining and fun! All current and former WINGS members, and anyone who’s interested in learning more about WINGS yesterday and today, are invited to come. There is no charge to attend this celebration, and light refreshments will be served. For further information, email WINGS@smdpyl.org.
