Our Parish Mission & Vision
St. Martin de Porres is a Stewardship and Hospitality parish. All are welcome as we use our unique gifts to serve the world as a visible sign of God’s love.
Feast of Divine Mercy Sunday

April 8, 2018
Holy Hour 3:00 - 4:00 pm at St. Martin’s

Eucharistic Adoration, Benediction, Divine Mercy Chaplet and Veneration of St. Faustina Relic

Divine Mercy Sunday was established by St. Pope John Paul II in the year 2000.

- Free 8x10 Blessed image of Divine Mercy
- Refreshments will be served following Holy Hour

St. Faustina recorded Jesus’ promise in her diary.
“I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls who go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy” (Diary 1109).

“Complete forgiveness of sins and punishment” (Diary 699).

How do we prepare as a parish to celebrate this Feast?

- Pray the 9 Day Divine Mercy Novena. It begins Good Friday, March 30, and ends April 7. This powerful 5-minute prayer given to St. Faustina by Jesus to pray for God’s Mercy is most powerful when prayed at the 3:00 pm Hour of Mercy. We pray it daily in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel following the Rosary at 8:30 am and at 3:00 pm. You can also pray at home with your family. Jesus asks us to pray the Chaplet for the sick, the suffering, and the dying. You will find Divine Mercy prayer brochures in the Church vestibule.

- Make the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday, April 3 at 7:00 pm, Saturday, April 7 at 4:00 pm, or some time near the Feast Day.

- Attend Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday, receive Holy Communion, pray for the Pope’s intentions and perform a Spiritual or Corporal Work of Mercy.

- Attend Eucharistic Adoration at 3:00 pm Holy Hour on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8 at St. Martin de Porres!

Receive a Plenary indulgence (remission of temporal punishment due to confessed sin) on this great Feast.

Lenten Sacred Silence

Throughout the season of Lent, we will observe prayerful silence for the 3 minutes prior to all masses. The silence will begin when you hear a musical tone of 3 chimes given by the Music Ministry. All are asked to kindly respect and participate in prayerful sacred silence and to conclude all conversation.

I want to become Catholic because . . .

I want my life to become a witness for the teachings and values of the Catholic Church. I want a deep and heart-felt relationship with my God that can only be experienced through participating in the Eucharist.

- Linda Fredrickson

I want to spend the rest of my life with God right by my side. I want to spread His Word and do for Him what Jesus did for us. I truly want a better relationship with God and becoming Catholic will help me there.

- Danielle Sandoval

I’d like to strengthen my journey of becoming a more spiritual person and close to God. I would also like to receive the Eucharist with my family and be a part of the full Catholic mass.

- Gina Gallegos

Looking back on my life, it is strange to remember not having faith at the forefront of my mind. The will to return to Catholicism over non-denominational Christianity had been there all along, but the seed not ready to sprout until now.

- Scott Fournet

I don’t need to pray and ask for God to give me a sense of His grace, although I certainly could, and do. But in the Eucharist, in confession, and in the knowledge that God gave us the Church, we can be certain of His grace. This, in my experience, has been the most powerful aspect of the Catholic Church.

- Ron Kenney

I want to be Catholic because I want to create that relationship with God that I hear is so amazing. I was put on this earth through Him and I feel as if I need to put in my part and be connected with Him properly through the Catholic Church. When I finish my 3 Sacraments I hope to feel more physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually connected with God.

- Katherine Chiny

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but have eternal life.” John 3:16

The Gospel says the Light came into the world, but people preferred the darkness to the light. Jesus is the Light. What if God, like a parent disciplining their rebellious child, allows us to suffer the consequences of our sin to teach us a hard lesson? Sometimes, we all choose to learn lessons the hard way.

God always wants what is best for us…in this life and eternal life in Heaven. Catechism says we were created to know, love and serve God in this world and be happy with Him in the next. God gifts us with “Free Will” to choose His love, to choose to love.

If we keep choosing sin over love, darkness over light then we offend God, hurt others & ourselves. Sin causes spiritual, emotional, psychological & physical suffering. Sin harms relationships too. If God lets us have it our way, and our way is NOT God’s way, then we slip into the misery of suffering & possible spiritual death.

The Good News is that God is so patient and loving that when we finally come to our senses and repent, our Merciful God is waiting to forgive us and receive us back into His Graces. Let Jesus’ Light shine within us. Let’s live in the Light and embrace His Love and Mercy.

Last 2 Weeks to Go to Confession in Lent.

Ask Jesus to heal your heart, soul & body through the Sacrament of Healing.
