What is Small Christian Communities (SCC)?

It is a ministry in our parish, made up of over 250 parishioners, who have a desire to understand more about our faith, how it affects our daily life, and all aspects of Christian Community Life. We meet to break open the readings of the upcoming Sunday, and prepare ourselves to embrace them at Mass. We meet in groups of 10-12 people, in one’s home, weekly or bi-weekly. Meetings, including social time, last about 2 hours. Friendships develop that last a lifetime. If our Lord is calling you to spread your wings and move closer to him, consider SCC your path to achieving this goal.
