Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

Before Jesus returned to heaven, he promised: “And behold I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

And He is...in the Holy Eucharist. In our Adoration Chapel, Jesus comes out of the tabernacle to meet us under the mysterious appearance of a wafer exposed in the monstrance; the same precious son of Mary, who once walked the earth and showed us the love of the Father. In the Chapel we come face to face with Jesus where he listens, counsels, comforts, loves, and blesses. O come let us adore Him!

Already have a scheduled Holy Hour? Consider adding another in 2019. Invite friends and family to sign up.

Community Life

From Father Sy to all Married Couples of the Parish

Father Sy is forming a support group for all married couples in our parish who are practicing Natural Family Planning (NFP) or looking to learn NFP.

The Church teaches that artificial contraception methods are immoral. Knowing that it takes faith and courage and much support for Catholic married couples to practice NFP or other fertility-awareness based methods, which are considered morally acceptable by the Church to space out births for serious reasons, Father Sy invites you to join him at the first meeting on:

Saturday, February 23 from 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm in St. Elizabeth room. Child care will be available. Please RSVP to Colleen Picou colleenp@smdpyl.org (required) with number of children for childcare. More information and additional meeting dates will be forthcoming.

Do You Feel Connected?

We all yearn for that sense of belonging. C.S. Lewis once said, “Friendship is born at that moment when one person says to another, ‘What! You too? I thought I was the only one’.” If similar experiences create friendships, then our church should be overflowing with lifelong friends. With whom do we have more in common than fellow believers who are amazed by the same manger, stirred by the same Bible, fed by the same Eucharist, saved by the same cross, and destined for the same eternal home? More than friends, we are family. Come take a respite from your busyness, connect with old and new friends, inspire and be inspired by joining a Small Christian Community. Sign-ups for Lent begin next week.

Third World Gifts & Handarts/Homeboy & Homegirl Products—Here this Weekend

Third World Gifts & Handarts are here this weekend for a fair trade sale that will include: pearl jewelry from survivors of human trafficking in Thailand, scarves from Vietnam, purses from Ecuador, carvings from Kenya, alpaca wool sweaters from Bolivia, ornaments from the Philippines, nativities from Peru, crosses from Native Americans in Arizona, as well as food and T-shirts from Homeboy/Homegirl Industries, Fr. Greg Boyle’s mission in L.A. Their nonprofit, all-volunteer organization was founded in 1975 to benefit impoverished artisans and their families.

Respect Life Ministry

Thank you St. Martin parishioners for wearing your blue Human Trafficking ribbons for the month of January! Your support in bringing about awareness to this ongoing and ever-growing travesty is very necessary and we hope that you will continue on along with us in our fight against it.

There will be a Human Trafficking sentencing coming up on Friday, February 8 at 9:00 am for Keland Scott Coleman. This male person has been human trafficking women since 2016 and has finally been convicted of this heinous crime. The sentencing will take place at the Central Court in Santa Ana on Civic Center Drive. If you choose to go separately instead of meeting at the Church at 8:00 am to carpool – the Room is C27. Those who wish to attend may call Martha Doose 714-777-7879 for carpool information or any other questions.

A New Senate Bill (SB35) has been introduced on 12/03/18 by Senator Ling Ling Chang as follows: Existing law makes a person who deprives or violates the personal liberty of another with the intent to obtain forced labor or services guilty of the crime of human trafficking and subject to imprisonment and a specified fine. This bill would express the intent of the Legislature to establish a task force to combat human trafficking that would collect and organize data on the nature and prevalence of trafficking in persons in California and organize collaborative efforts between local and state governments and nongovernmental organizations for protecting victims of trafficking, among other, related duties. Contact Sen. Ling Ling Chang with your support of this bill: senator.chang@sen.Ca.gov, 916-651-4029, or State Capitol, Room 4062, Sacramento, Ca 95814-4900

The Exhibition is coming to the Cathedral Cultural Center on the Christ Cathedral Campus! The exhibit focuses on Michelangelo’s contributions to the Sistine Chapel: namely the artwork from the ceiling and the Last Judgment. By bringing the artwork closer, visitors will be able to appreciate these famous masterpieces from a new perspective.

The Sistine Chapel Exhibition will open on April 13. More information and tickets at: https://www.sistineexhibit.com
