12TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

“Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” - Mt 10:31

OUR PARISH MISSION & VISION
St. Martin de Porres is a Stewardship and Hospitality parish. As Catholic Christians guided by the Holy Spirit, we are Christ’s disciples dedicated to faith formation, worship, community life, and service. All are welcome as we use our unique gifts to serve the world as a visible sign of God’s love.

TODAY’S READINGS

Body & Blood of Christ

Reading 1 JER 20:10-13
Jeremiah said:
“I hear the whisperings of many: ‘Terror on every side! Denounce! Let us denounce him!’
All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. ‘Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.’
But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph.
In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion.
O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause.
Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!”

Responsorial Psalm
PS 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35
R. (14c) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

For your sake I bear insult, and shame covers my face.
I have become an outcast to my brothers, a stranger to my children,
Because zeal for your house consumes me, and the insults of those who blaspheme you fall upon me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

Reading 2 ROM 5:12-15
Brothers and sisters:
Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned— for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law.
But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come.

But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

Alleluia JN 15:26B, 27A
R. Alleluia, alleluia.
The Spirit of truth will testify to me, says the Lord; and you also will testify. R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel MT 10:26-33
Jesus said to the Twelve:
“Fear no one.
Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known.
What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops.
And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.
Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted.
So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.
Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.
But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father.”

Sunday, June 21, 2020 | 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Dear St. Martin Parishioners,

I am pleased to report that our in-person Masses this past weekend went very well. This coming Sunday, June 21st, we will add a Mass to our schedule as follows:

- 8:45 AM - Newly added back to schedule
- 10:30 AM - Live-streamed
- 12:15 PM

We will, of course, continue to enforce social distancing (sit near a white cross) and strongly recommend face coverings. Please follow the guidance of the hospitality ministers during Mass to ensure safe social distancing. Receiving Communion on the hand is strongly recommended, but if you must receive on the tongue, join the Priest’s line.

Daily Mass continues at 8:00 AM (live-streamed) and 6:30 PM, and Adoration continues 24/7 in the Chapel. For Mass, please enter the Church through the main doors only and please exit through side doors only. No gatherings on the Plaza before and following Mass. The hospitality ministers will allow you into the Church between Masses once the space has been thoroughly sanitized.

If you are sick or have any of the COVID-19 symptoms, please stay home. Also, if you feel unsafe attending Mass, remember the Bishop has extended the dispensation from attending Sunday Mass.

As a reminder from my homily this past weekend, please remember:
1. Participate in 24/7 Adoration. Contact adoration@smdpstyl.org for more information.
2. Always come to Mass on time and do not leave early.
3. Dress for Mass appropriately. Dress like this is the most important thing you will do all week.

Since many parishioners are not able to attend Mass in-person, now is a great time to enroll in the St. Martin's e-Giving Program. It's fast, easy and very flexible. Visit www.smdpstyl.org and click on “Give on-line” on the home page. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Thank you and may God bless you and your families.

Fr. Sy Nguyen

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED GIVING

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:
The Sign of Peace

Question:
Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

Answer:
The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after we offer the Lord’s Prayer. Inspired by the Jesus’ words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: “Our Father who art in heaven...” In this prayer, we call for the coming of God’s kingdom in all its fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — “Give us, this day, our daily bread” — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven.

It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ’s peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ’s peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, “Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

LIVE THE LITURGY
Inspiration for the week

Jesus knows that the challenges a disciple of the Gospel will face in the world are real. He tells all of us point blank, “Do not be afraid.” There are many things we can fear as we attempt to live the Gospel: unpopularity, being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. Many folks know that their faith calls them to live life more deliberately and radically but are cowards when it comes to putting it into practice. We easily justify sticking with the “acceptable” norms with which we are accustomed. These only serve to keep us stuck and mired in mediocrity. The Gospel — given flesh by the very presence of Christ — seeks to stretch, challenge, and change us. We do not have to fear anything, even death. Sometimes, living with our fears brings us a sadly disordered sense of comfort. Maybe what we really fear above all else is change.
3 EASY STEPS
To Keeping Yourself & Others Healthy!
We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

Wash Your Hands
Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can’t wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

Don’t Touch Your Face
Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

Keep Your Distance
Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.

“Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.”

- Mt 10:29-31

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass
Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.
Amen
