Dear Parishioners,

I have just received a communication from the Diocese that, although the Catholic Conference of Bishops is presently asking for clarification, the church doors need to be closed in compliance with the “stay at home” order meanwhile. I am sorry. But don’t worry, I will keep our spiritual home filled with prayers for you on your behalf.

Tomorrow is Sunday. I am certain that you are ready to make it holy at home. I hope you know that there are numerous resources for your spiritual needs during this time on our parish website. Father Hoa will be live streaming Sunday Mass at 12:00pm on March 22 on our parish Facebook page. I know that the heavenly host is with me at Mass, still, I will miss you all as I look out to the empty church. My brothers and sister, this too shall pass. We are Christians, have faith and be courageous.
