

NEWMAN FOUNDATION, INC. BRINGS CHRIST'S LIGHT TO OUR COMMUNITY

The Distinguished Speakers Program

Religious Freedom, At Home And Abroad

Fr. Thomas Reese, a Senior Analyst at Religion News Service, will examine the intersection of religious and personal freedom in the U.S. as well as the plight of those persecuted for their religious affiliations in other countries.

Two Opportunities

Monday, Dec. 3, 2018 7:00 p.m.
Cathedral of Christ the King
Hehman Hall
299 Colony Blvd
Lexington, Ky.

Tuesday, Dec. 4, 2018 7:00pm,
Kentucky State University
Carroll Acad Svcs Bldg 1st Floor
University Drive, Frankfort, Ky.
(Park at William Exum Ctr. lot)

Co-sponsored by Newman Foundation Inc. and UK Cottrill-Rolfes Chair of Catholic Studies

About the Speaker

Fr. Reese's column, Signs of the Times, appears regularly in the National Catholic Reporter. He received a P.h.D in political science from U.C. Berkeley and is the author of three books: Inside the Vatican: The Politics and Organization of the Catholic Church, Archbishop and A Flock of Shepherds.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

WWW.NEWMANFND.ORG