Come to the Feast: Nourishing the Assembly, Nourishing Our Souls

What is the ministerial vocation of liturgical ministers, from cantors and choir members, to lectors, hospitality ministers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion and servers, to deacons preachers and priests?

Come explore how through the work of the Holy Spirit, we who serve as liturgical ministers on Sunday are called to lead the assembly into full, conscious and active participation, foster a spirit of prayer and communal worship, and challenge ourselves to go forth into the world and proclaim the Good News!

Long recognized for his liturgical music, Fr. Manalo boasts a doctorate in theology. He has lectured, preached and presented pastoral workshops and concerts all over the world. Fr. Manalo has written numerous articles and books on liturgical ministry, music and intercultural competence, and is a gifted speaker as well as musician.
