Dear Parishioners,

As you know the Archbishop has placed the Archdiocesan Strategic Plan on hold until a new Archbishop is appointed. However, as a parish community we still need to build for our future. Self-evaluation is a good and healthy thing to do. In my own reflection, I often wonder how you the parishioners view and/or experience the parish. Basically, I am asking what are your thoughts on the parish, the Church. This weekend of Oct 13 and 14 after each of the masses, I am inviting you to stay behind for a question and brainstorming session. This will be an opportunity for you to ask questions, and to help me and the Pastoral Council identify areas of strength and weakness in the parish. If you do not wish to speak publicly please feel comfortable in addressing your thoughts to me in a letter. My concern over all is that we need to engage more parishioners in a meaningful way; we need more people to assist in liturgical ministry; we need to strengthen our own personal connection to our faith and our parish community. Together, we can build upon the strong foundation that we have in our parish, together, we can move forward as a faith community, strengthening and building one another up in the faith.

Steve, Fr. Jose, Fr. Gerard Power, Fr. Ken Walsh and Msgr. Denis Walsh. To Fr. Jerome Hann, Fr. Patrick Power and Fr. Ray Earle for your prayers and comforting words. To our longtime friends and relatives from near and far. To our angel neighbors, the Singletons and the Daleys for their presence to us in so many ways. To the bereavement team, to the choir in St. Joseph's especially Maureen Healey and to all who participated in the ministries of the funeral Mass.
