

Our Lady of Mercy School seeks a full-time middle school theology teacher beginning immediately. The ideal candidate will incorporate his or her expertise in the teaching of Catholic theology, commitment to Catholic education, and willingness to work as part of a larger team into the service of our school's mission: that our students strive to be saints and scholars. The position is hired by the pastor in conjunction with the principal and reports to the principal.

Responsibilities

- Supporting and upholding the mission and teachings of the Catholic Church in word and deed
- Encouraging all students in grades six through eight towards sanctity and scholarship through kind, firm classroom leadership, high academic expectations, and instructional excellence
- Working effectively with all members of our school community to create an environment where students, faculty, staff, and families pursue excellence in a spirit of Christian charity
- Communicating regularly with families regarding student progress
- Seeking constant professional growth, including through those professional development opportunities offered by Our Lady of Mercy School or the Diocese of Providence, and through weekly staff meetings.
- Supporting and adhering to the Code of Conduct and policies and procedures of Our Lady of Mercy School and the Diocese of Providence
- Demonstrating professionalism in conduct, demeanor, and work habits
- Performing administrative and supervision duties as a sixth-grade homeroom teacher
- Maintaining confidentiality regarding school matters
- Maintaining current and accurate records according to school policy
- Performing other responsibilities as designated by the principal or pastor of the school

Requirements

- Must be a faithful, practicing Catholic in good standing with the Church
- Bachelor's degree required
- Citizenship, residency, or work visa required
- At least two years of relevant experience preferred
