

Fr. Fred Liccio

Dear Friends,

I found two Morning Prayers that might be familiar to some of you (one to put the Lord in our hearts, and the other to put a smile on our faces). I offer these for our prayer today. May the Lord bless us always in love.

Lord, as I rise today,
I thank you for another wonderful day of life
with which You have blessed me.
I am alive, strong and healthy.
My faith is strong and I walk in the light
daily with you, Lord,
and feel the warmth of your love.
I am living a wonderful life and thank You for everything, God.

I know that no matter what I face,
You would never give me more than I can handle
and You will never leave me alone.
Please continue to watch over all my loved ones
and keep them safe, Lord.
*"Be on your guard; stand firm in faith;
be courageous; be strong." (1 Cor. 16:13)*

Dear Lord:

So far I've done all right.
I haven't gossiped, haven't lost my temper,
haven't been greedy, grumpy, nasty,
selfish, or over-indulgent.
I'm really glad about that.
But in a few minutes, Lord,
I'm going to get out of bed,
and from then on,
I'm going to need a lot more help.

God bless us all, today and always.
