

Fr. Fred Liccio

Dear Friends,

Lately, some days seem to just fly by, even though we are not necessarily doing everything from our old routine. Other days drag on. Some days are filled with positive thoughts and experiences. Other days are tense and filled with challenge.

We need to take time each day to focus on Christ, to remind ourselves that He is with us, and to center our minds and hearts on our Savior.

The following song, Sacred Silence sung by Tom Booth, can give us just a few moments of peaceful reflection in the midst of the chaos. It can remind us of our need for Jesus, and His ever-present love and peace which He offers.

www.youtube.com/watch?v=LNZ62clakqQ

May this help us begin a day dedicated to Jesus, and to the service and care of one another. God bless you.

Father Fred