

Fr. Fred Liccio

Dear Friends,

The Second Reading from today's Liturgy (Romans 11: 33-36) is a beautiful reminder to us of the greatness of our God. Many years ago the St. Louis Jesuits did this to music (sadly I can't find a recording of it). But the words are a powerful reminder to us of the love and care that our God has for all of us.

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!

*For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?
Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?*

For from him and through him and for him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

Let us turn to the Lord and pray for the help and strength we need to get through these difficult days. May we give our hearts over to the goodness of the Lord, who is our help and our shield.

Have a blessed day.

Father Fred
