

Fr. Fred Liccio

Dear Friends,

"Surfing" through You Tube for an inspirational song, I again came across the group Casting Crowns and found these lyrics especially poignant to this day and age and all the "storms" we are encountering each day. Perhaps the music won't be to everyone's style, but I believe the words are powerful.

May the goodness of the Lord fill our hearts and minds with peace and comfort!

Father Fred

Praise You In This Storm