Happy New Month of September!

Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe we are beginning the month of September today. Yikes! The days are flying by while taking forever (if you know what I mean). Many feel this way these days.

So to brighten our day and fill us with the spirit of the presence of God, I share with you a choral piece by Craig Courtney entitled Steadfast. I think it's a beautiful reminder of the ever-present love of God for each of us, especially in "bad times" as well as good.

I also invite us to join Pope Francis in his monthly intention:

*That the planet's resources
will not be plundered,
but shared in a just and respectful manner.*

May the Lord bless us always, and fill us with life and healing.

Father Fred

Steadfast
