Parish Mission Statement

We, All Saints Parish, are drawn together by the power of the Holy Spirit to be a living and convincing sign of God's unconditional love. We are gifted to build bonds among ourselves and others in order to live the Gospel in word, worship, community and service for the salvation of all and the building of God's kingdom.

Today we celebrate one of the “big three” solemnities in the liturgical year: Pentecost. Pentecost stands tall along with Jesus' birth and resurrection. It is not as “popular” as the other two because our society has not made it a day for giving/receiving gifts or dying eggs. You never hear how many more shopping days ‘till Pentecost. Pentecost is 100% spiritual; zero material payback. As we read further into the acts of the apostles, we find the Holy Spirit becomes less a spectacular experience and more a guide and problem-solver in the day to day life of the believing community. The main difference between the disciples before and after the Pentecost experience is not the flames dancing on their heads or wondrous communication skills or that wind-blown look. Pentecost is fundamentally a story about the disciples' courage, overriding their fear of being arrested, and their fear of those who might angrily – even murderously -- protest their proclaiming the message. They no longer fear Jewish leaders or Jewish followers. Courage is a language that the world scarcely speaks. We do recognize it when we hear a story of it or we see it. Jesus' followers were so filled with the spirit of God that they felt moved to do just what Jesus did: speak life and love into our world. They also left as their heritage a community that would begin to shoulder the burden and the joy of carrying the message of love. Come, Holy Spirit – enkindle in our hearts the fire of your love and the courage to use our already, God-given gifts.
