Parish Mission Statement

We, All Saints Parish, are drawn together by the power of the Holy Spirit to be a living and convincing sign of God's unconditional love. We are gifted to build bonds among ourselves and others in order to live the Gospel in word, worship, community and service for the salvation of all and the building of God's kingdom.

There are too many references to the Final Judgement in our Scriptures to dismiss it as merely a figure of speech. Many believers find it helpful to keep the Judgement Day as part of their spiritual horizon. It is a way of keeping some balance amid our daily activity. Seeing our problems and our successes in the light of eternity (sub specie aeternitatis,) as Baruch Spinoza put it, helps us see everything as relative, and that God is the ultimate judge of all. An advice much favored by preachers was "Live as though each day may be your last." Most people feel disinclined to think about the last things. But it is spiritually purifying on occasion, especially in November, the month for remembering our dead. Most days, like Martha in the Gospel, we are fully occupied with what needs to be done in the immediate here and now, busy with many things. We can appreciate the practical advice given by St. Paul to people who were looking out excitedly for the Lord's return and neglecting to earn their living. "Go on quietly minding your own affairs," he says, "and if anyone will not work, neither let him eat!" This is tough love, but it makes perfect sense for the life of the community.

If you would like to have more contact with a parishioner then you can put your address, phone number, etc. You will be able to take a name from the bowl that contains Angel Paper's and pray for that person starting November 30th/December 1st.
