

The Church of Saint Sebastian – Providence, RI
Job Opportunity: Director of Faith Formation and Evangelization

The Church of Saint Sebastian is seeking a highly-motivated, faith filled individual to fill a new staff position, Director of Faith Formation and Evangelization. In conjunction with the pastor, the Director would oversee the Faith Formation of the entire community (Religious Education, RCIA, and Adult Faith Formation). The Director would also help lay the necessary ground work for a nascent Youth Ministry Program. In addition, the Director would work closely with the pastor, in reaching out to those who have become disenfranchised with the Church, help grow the parish and its programs.

Requirements:

Catholic in good standing;

Preferred BA in philosophy, Theology or related field;

Ability to develop and implement new programs and improve upon and redirect what is already present;

BA in philosophy/theology or some related field;

Necessary computer skills;

Ability to work kindly and easily with others

About the Employer:

Saint Sebastian Roman Catholic Church is located on the East Side of Providence. A small, friendly community, Saint Sebastian is known for our dedication to caring for the poor, faith formation, and worship.

Interested candidates may apply to:

Church of Saint Sebastian

Attn. Rev. Jordan Kelly

67 Cole Avenue

Providence, RI 02906

Or via email: office@stsebastianri.org