All Saints STEAM Academy - Principal Opening

Located in Middletown, Rhode Island, All Saints STEAM Academy, a diocesan Catholic co-educational school welcoming students of all faiths from Preschool to Grade 8, seeks a principal to begin July 1, 2022. Founded in 1972 and accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC), All Saints STEAM Academy provides an exceptional educational program that places emphasis on the spiritual, intellectual, physical and aesthetic development of each student.

The eligible candidate will be a practicing Roman Catholic in good standing with the Church, hold a minimum of a master’s degree in education or a related field and have successfully completed at least five year’s teaching or administrative experience, preferably in a Catholic school. He or she must be able to direct an active, joyful Catholic school faith community where every student has daily opportunities to encounter the love of God in Jesus Christ. He or she will value the importance of moral character development, self-discipline and Christian service. He or she will be able to guide the faculty as a professional learning community and promote 21st Century teaching and learning best practices with an emphasis on integrated project based STEAM instruction and a student-centered learning environment. He or she will model life-long learning and partner collaboratively with faculty and parents. The position also requires outstanding verbal and written communication skills, professional experience in supervision and evaluation, and an understanding of enrollment management, institutional advancement and Catholic school financial stewardship.

Rooted in Gospel values and centered on the life and teachings of Jesus Christ, All Saints STEAM Academy develops and nurtures in its students creative minds, heathy bodies, and ethical spirits, and instills in them wisdom, compassion and leadership within the context of strong Christian values.
