"Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man." - Lk 6:22

FROM THE PASTOR.....

Don't you think it's kind of interesting that for us who are Americans, our money has the words "In God We Trust" written on it? Let's be honest, for a whole bunch of people, their money is the first place where we don't trust in God! We see this with so many people in how little if any they tithe. Those who tithe know that they will be fine because God is totally trustworthy. But we all can struggle from time to time with placing our trust in God. But our first reading this weekend from Jeremiah tells us, "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord!" Do you trust in God's plan for you enough? I'm sure that we all want to, but what are we afraid of? Life's trials and hardships. Well, that's when we're supposed to place our trust in God the most! It's way too easy to pretend that we are trusting in God when life is all sunny and bright. That's why St. Luke in our Gospel today tells us, Blessed are you when you have to go through trials and difficulties. We have to remember that God sees the whole picture. And He sees that so many of the things that we have to go through, the joys and the sorrows are just the various seasons of our lives. But in and through it all we have our very faithful God who will be there for us when things are great and who will definitely be there for us when things are tough. Be filled with hope knowing that God is the only One who will ever be completely faithful to you. Place all of your trust in Him.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

The Eucharist is an event that transcends time. In some mysterious way, just as the old covenant, Passover, brought the Jewish people back in time to that first Exodus, so, too, the new Passover of the Eucharist takes us back to the night when Jesus died for us. It takes us back to the night of the Last Supper. It takes us back to his Passion and all the way to the Cross. —Dr. Brant Pitre
